500,000 Use Up Benefits, Government Shows Worry

Public Is Pinched On Use of Water

New York Sends Wardens to Check Plumbing; Fines in Prospect

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—The world's biggest city doesn't have enough water today to let its residents wash their cars.

As authorities worked to plug the holes in New York's fast-emptying water barrel, new restrictions were imposed to conserve remaining supplies.

For the first time, the pinch really was being felt directly by the public.

All "non-essential" use of water was cut, by order of Water Commissioner Stephen J. Carney.

He has directed:

That all automobile washing be "completely stopped."

That there be no flooding of tennis courts or filling of pools for winter ice skating.

That the cleaning of tiled walls in subway stations be halted for the duration of the shortage.

At the same time, the police department was mobilizing an army of several thousand civilian "water wardens" to canvass homes and urge dwellers to save water.

Wearing armbands marked "police," some of the wardens already were on the job.

They find leaky faucets or residents who are wasting water, they are to report the conditions to authorities.

Coupled with this, the city has raised the fine for leaky plumbing from $2 to $5 for each day of the offense.

But the penalty for other water wastes could be more. A Brooklyn man recently collected a $10 fine from a man for washing his car in front of his home.

The new restrictions stemmed from what Carney called an "increasingly acute situation."

The city's upstate and Westchester county reservoirs, supplied by unusually heavy consumption combined with a season of light rainfall, were down to about 88,678,000,000 gallons, about one-third of capacity.

New York could become a "ghost city," says Chief Water Engineer Edward J. Clark, if the needed rains don't come.

Working with the city in its conservation efforts, the American Dental Association told its members to turn off taps in mouth-washing bowls, except when in use by patients.

The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals began modifying control valves to check the flow of water in horse watering troughs.

The Board of Education ordered minor swimming pools, which require frequent refilling, left empty.

The save-water campaign, being pressed by newspaper and radio, was apparently having its effect. One woman called city hall, and said:

"I'm all right to take a shower."

Exhaustions Come With Period of Rising Employment; Job Is Solution

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—A rapid rise in the number of unemployed workers exhausting jobless benefit rights is causing growing concern among government officials.

Latest figures compiled by the Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security show about 500,000 persons ran out of their rights to further unemployment compensation payments during the July-September quarterly period.

Those are persons who still didn't have jobs after running through all the unemployment insurance payments they were entitled to. The number of weeks of benefits varies from state to state.

These exhaustions came at a time of high employment, and give an idea of the problem that would arise in a time of serious unemployment.

Employment has been gaining lately, and unemployment has been decreasing, so some of the people out of work in the July-September period may now have found jobs. However, unemployment in November was estimated by the Census Bureau to be 3,400,000 as compared with 3,830,000 in November 1948. The November 1949 employment figure was 55,518,000.

The exhaustion figures have risen rapidly this year. In 1948 they ran between 200,000 and 250,000 each quarter for the nation. This year they jumped to 360,000 for the January-March quarter, 423,000 for April-June, and now to 500,000 for the most recent quarter.

That 500,000 figure is more than double the 216,000 exhaustions of the July-September quarter a year ago.

The big question is this: What happens to workers once they run through all their jobless insurance benefits? The Bureau of Employment Security has asked state employment offices to try to find out.

Officials believe a great many such workers go on direct relief.

A substantial number go to live with relatives or friends.

The real solution for such idle workers, of course, would be to find a job and go to work.

But since state employment agencies were trying to find them jobs all

Race Fails to Save Man

Philadelphia, Dec. 8 (AP)—A 70-year-old trolley driver last night aboard a racing trolley that made a 13-block non-stop trip in an attempt to save his life. Harry B. Embick was pronounced dead at Misericordia Hospital. When Embick collapsed on the crowded car, other passengers notified Motorist James Wright. The motorist asked one of the passengers to leave the car and telephone police. He designated a rendezvous 13 blocks away and three blocks from the hospital. Police and firemen met the trolley at the rendezvous spot and transferred Embick to an emergency car. A rescue squad tried without success to revive Embick during the 13-minute three-block trip to the hospital.

Embick was a member of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The save-water campaign, being pressed by newspaper and radio, was apparently having its effect. One woman called city hall, and said:

"I'm all right to take a shower."

Formosa Is Capital of Nationals

China Is Virtually Given Over to Reds; Sichang Is Headquarters for Mainland Fight

Hopes Are Grim Chinese Still Count on Move to Consolidate Their Forces

Chengtu, Dec. 8 (AP)—The Nationalists shifted their capital to Formosa today and virtually abandoned most of the mother country to the Reds.

The sweeping move was decreed by the cabinet. It could mean the end of large-scale warfare in China after 22 hectic years.

Guerrilla forces were left behind to keep pecking at the Reds. But the main Chinese force was in on headed for Sichang, behind Sikang's snow-covered mountains on Formosa, or Hainan Island, 300 miles southwest of British Hong Kong.

The decision was reached at an emergency session of Premier Yen Hsi-shan's cabinet.

Formosa is Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's stronghold which has been armed and equipped for a last ditch stand against victorious Chinese Communists.

The emergency cabinet session also decided to make Sichang, in Sikang province west of Chengtu, general headquarters for operations on the mainland.

The cabinet accepted the resignation of Gen. Chang Chun from the post of director of southwest China headquarters. Gen. Ku Chu Tung, was given this job in addition to his present duties as chief of staff.

Gen. Hu Tsung-nan, and Yang Sen were named deputy directors.

Two guerrilla forces to operate under southwest headquarters were established. The commander of the first force is General Wang Tsang-shu. The commander of the second is Gen. Yang Shih-seng.

This would indicate Nationalist operations on the mainland will be resolved into organized guerrilla warfare. Such a step virtually is a nationalistic admission they have lost the China mainland.

It does not, however, mean they have lost completely. The great war against the Reds which has been going on since 1927.

The Nationalists evidently hope they will be able to consolidate their remaining forces and conquer the Communists in the same way as the Reds beat them.

Premier Yen Hsi-shan flew immediately to Taipei, which thus becomes China's fifth capital this year.

(A Taipei dispatch received in the San Francisco office of the Associated Press said Yen had arrived there from Chengtu.)

Only yesterday he stripped down his government from the thousands of officeholders who were in Nanking, Canton and Chungking to a bare 107 men.

He said he was making it mobile to get to another mainland, sent of government from threatened Chengtu, which now has the record of being the shortest-lived capital in Chinese history.

The exhaustion figures have risen rapidly this year. In 1948 they ran between 200,000 and 250,000 each quarter for the nation. This year they jumped to 360,000 for the January-March quarter, 423,000 for April-June, and now to 500,000 for the most recent quarter.

Latin Americans Work To Aid Flooded Areas

Caracas, Venezuela, Dec. 8 (AP)—Central and South American countries mobilized today for relief work in the wake of heavy rains that brought major damage to at least three countries.

The hardest hit appeared to be Venezuela, Costa Rica and Trinidad.

Two helicopters were sent to aid in rescue work in Venezuela's Barlovento coffee belt. A 30-hour downpour there left some 20,000 persons homeless, caused two casualties and did crop and property damage estimated at more than $1,000,000.

More than eight persons were reported dead or missing at Paganini in northeast Costa Rica. From central Trinidad came a report that the Caroni river, overflowing after a four-day downpour, had made 300 villagers homeless.

The emergency cabinet session also decided to make Sichang, in Sikang province west of Chengtu, general headquarters for operations on the mainland.

The cabinet accepted the resignation of Gen. Chang Chun from the post of director of southwest China headquarters. Gen. Ku Chu Tung, was given this job in addition to his present duties as chief of staff.

Third Defendant Pleads to Charges Of Spying, Treason

Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 8 (AP)—A third defendant in Bulgaria's Tito trial pleaded guilty today to charges of treason and spying.

Boris Christov joined Nikola Nachev, former deputy construction minister, and Ivan Stevanov, former finance minister, in admitting he plotted to make Bulgaria a vassal of neighboring Yugoslavia. Christov was a former Bulgarian commercial attaché in Moscow.

As a special court resumed its trial of 11 former government and business officials, Christov testified he had connections since 1946 with the Yugoslav commercial attaché in Moscow and, under the direction of Traicho Kostov, former Communist deputy premier, gave the Yugoslav espionage information.

Kostov is the main defendant in the trial.

(The official Soviet News Agency, reported in a Moscow radio broadcast heard in London that Kostov yesterday repudiated portions of a previous confession of guilt to charges of plotting with Yugoslavia's Premier Marshal Tito and British intelligence agents against Bulgaria's Communist regime.)

(A similar report was carried by the London Daily Express.)

As in the recent Hungarian treason trial, the defendants are accused of plotting to overthrow their country's Red regime and put the nation under the domination of Yugoslavia's Premier Marshal Tito.

Most of yesterday's session was devoted to the reading of 20,000 word indictment and a lengthy pre-trial confession by Kostov. He is accused of working for British intelligence agents and for Tito, and with betraying top Bulgarian Communists in 1942 to the West.

Other improvements made in the building and general contractor, began the tour yesterday at Middletown, N. Y. With him are Raymond L. Gebhardt and Ferdinand J. Seigenthal, the line's two trustees. Also aboard are Rosoff's lawyer and his accountant.

Wadleigh Testifies At Hiss Trial, Says He Gave U.S. Papers

Repeats Story Given During Summer; Took Some Papers to Carpenter, Got Them Back

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Henry Julian Wadleigh today denied at the Alger Hiss perjury trial that he supplied to a Russian spy ring any of the government papers Whitaker Chambers said he got from Hiss.

The defense in the second Hiss trial has said it will try to show that the papers came from Wadleigh, an economist who once worked for the State Department.

Wadleigh a prosecution witness, also denied that he took any papers from Hiss' office when the defendant was a State Department official.

Gave Other Papers

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Former State Department employee testified today at the second Alger Hiss perjury trial that he gave government papers to a pre-war Russian spy ring courier.

Henry Julian Wadleigh, who worked in the department's trade agreements section from 1936 to 1943, took the stand to repeat the story which was a sensation of the first Hiss trial last summer.

Hiss, former high-ranking State Department official, is accused of lying when he said he did not pass government secrets to Whitaker Chambers, one-time Communist courier.

The defense has announced it (Continued on Page 20, Col. 5)

City Skating Rink Is Ready for Use

Will Be Flooded Soon as Freezing Weather Is Registered

Kingston's municipal skating rink at the Myron J. Michael school grounds is ready for use and will be opened to the public as soon as the temperature drops sufficiently to freeze water for a good skating surface.

Ernest A. Steuding, superintendent of public works, said today that enough ice lights have been installed to give adequate light for night skating. Electric current will be turned on tonight, so the lights may be switched on anytime skating becomes possible, he said.

A supply of coal will be moved in today to heat the concession building which has been constructed, Steuding said. This building has lavatories and a place where skaters may change shoes, as well as the concession stand.

A concession to sell refreshments will probably be let by the Board of Public Works in the near future, although action has not been taken as yet, Steuding said.

Other improvements made in the building and general contractor, began the tour yesterday at Middletown, N. Y. With him are Raymond L. Gebhardt and Ferdinand J. Seigenthal, the line's two trustees. Also aboard are Rosoff's lawyer and his accountant.

Surrogate's Salary Won't Be Raised Until January of 1951

Appropriations for salaries of employees in the Ulster County Department of Health, at the Tuberculosis Hospital and in the County Welfare Department were approved by the Board of Supervisors Wednesday evening. There were no major changes in any of the salaries. An increase of $400 was granted for a deputy commissioner of health in order to bring that salary in line with salaries offered in other places. That position has not been filled for some time, due to the inability to get a qualified man at the salary offered.

Appropriations were also approved for the operating expenses of the Health Department and the Tuberculosis Hospital.

A contract was entered into with the Kingston Laboratory for county services for the next year. The contract calls for a payment to the city of $22,000 for all county services. This is up $2,000 over the last contract. Since the state reimburses the county for 50 per cent of this cost, the sum of $11,000 will be assessed and levied against the county, outside the city of Kingston, to meet the cost of laboratory work done for the county.

For operation of the Ulster County Department of Health there will be raised by tax levy on the county the sum of $61,336.84, which, when added to the estimated state reimbursement of $119,362.50 and an estimated balance as of January 1, 1950, will make up the necessary $188,725 required to operate the department for 1950. The amount authorized in 1948 for operation of the health department during 1949 was $64,000. Following is a breakdown of the estimated cost of operation of the department.

Medical and general $24,650
Health Education 3,200
Public Health Nursing 65,385
Dental 11,115
Environmental sanitation 29,840
Office Management 26,830
General maintenance and operation 18,250
Total $188,725

Raising of $2,000 in the budget to pay the increased salary of the surrogate was stricken out by an amendment to a resolution passed last week. It was found the increase in salary of the surrogate as fixed by state law does not become effective during the term of the present surrogate, and, since the term will not expire until January 1, 1951, it will not be necessary to raise the additional $2,000 in 1950. The county judge's salary increase of $2,000 will become effective on January 1, 1950 since the new term of Judge Cashin will commence at that time, he having been elected to another term at the last general election.

A report was made by the Committee on Town and County Accounts relative to returned school taxes. There is a total of $131,884.99 in unpaid school taxes in the county which will be assessed and levied against the properties upon which it is due. The unpaid tax, plus 7 per cent interest is levied. The report was approved and the levy authorized.

A report was also made by the Committee on Insurance and the sum of $17,000 will be assessed and levied against the county to pay bills.

A resolution was offered and adopted fixing the salaries of the employees of the Welfare Department. There are no changes in these salaries. The total amount to be raised for salaries in the department is $145,740.

The salary schedule for Health Department employees was also approved. The total amount required for salaries in this department is $145,740.

A salary schedule for employees at the Tuberculosis Hospital was also approved. The salaries being the same except for cleaners, where a slight increase has been granted. That total is $80,105.

In some of the classifications in county departments where employees in one department are doing the same type of work, requiring the same qualifications, as in another department, an effort has been made this year in bringing the salary schedules on a par.

This is true of public health nurses, case workers, stenographers, typists, etc., where the

Shipment Was Made By Concern

Material Sent to Reds in May, 1943. Trade Minister Says as Part of War Aid

Trail Is Widened

Further U. S. Releases Checked. Also Heavy Water

Ottawa, Dec. 8 (AP)—Trade Minister C. D. Howe said today that a shipment of Canadian uranium oxide and uranium nitrate went to Russia in May, 1943.

In a statement to the House of Commons, Howe said the shipment was valued at $2,145 and made through normal commercial channels by Eldorado Gold Mines Ltd., a private firm which sold its uranium-producing property to the Canadian government in 1944.

He said it was treated as a "normal" transaction. Few people knew then that tests leading to the atomic bomb were under way, and it was considered wise not to call attention to the project by refusing orders for materials, he added.

The policy in 1943 was to give all possible aid to winning Russia, Howe said.

He said the Russians asked for the normal way for 100 pounds of black uranium oxide and 500 pounds of uranium nitrate to be used in the production of the war.

The order was to be used in production of munitions, the nature for medical purposes.

Shipments Are Checked

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—Howe's statement is on the trail of those wartime atomic shipments to Russia. Shipments numbered 4 and 5.

They have reason to believe perhaps 500 pounds of uranium oxide and 500 pounds of uranium nitrate to be used in the production of the war.

The committee is exploring too, an idea that the Soviets might have side-stepped the Lend-Lease Administration to get some atomic materials elsewhere.

But except for some checking on items like these by the committee, the latest atomic explosion on Capitol Hill apparently has just about subsided until Dec. 19.

Teenagers Puzzle British

London, (AP)—The ministry of education admit that teenagers are as baffling to educators as they are to parents. The ministry wants to expand its experimental courses in parenthood in British schools but it has run into this problem: At what age should a girl begin to study how to become a successful mother? In a pamphlet, "Citizens Growing Up," the ministry puts it like this: "There are many who think that 13 or 14 is too young, since much of what is learned at that age is forgotten by the time a girl marries." But, on the other hand, it said "girls at this stage are mostly interested in small children, while at the age of 16 or thereabouts their interest tends to shift to boys or young men." The pamphlet-writers threw up their hands. "It is strongly urged," they advised, "that opportunities for homecraft and parenthood should be given girls of every age in all types of schools."

Republican Holds 50 Chances Dim

Washington, Dec. 7 (AP)—A high Republican political strategist admitted today that the G.O.'s chances of winning control of the House next year are dim.

He asked not to be identified by name.

He did dispute Democrats' claims that the Republicans actually will lose seats in the 1950 congressional elections.

"We will make some gains," he said. "But I wouldn't say that we will gain enough seats for control of the House and I don't think there's much chance to recapture the Senate next year."

All 435 House seats will be at stake next year, but little more than one-third of the 96 Senate seats will be filled.

For at least nominal control of the House, a political party needs 218 seats.

The Democrats now have 262, the Republicans 170, the American-Labor Party one, and there are two vacancies, one Democrat and one Republican.

For Republicans to gain control, they would have to pick up 47 seats which are not now Republican. The Democrats would have to lose that many.

The last time the Republicans won control of the House was in 1946, when they picked up 56 seats to give them a voting strength of 246 members.

To win control of the Senate in next year's elections, the Republicans must pick up eight seats now held by Democrats. There are only 20 Democratic Senate seats on the block next year and at least half of them are in the so-called "Solid South" or in border states where it would take a political miracle to elect a Republican.

The Library

To further increase interest in the Kingston Library and the Library Association, The Freeman will publish a number of reviews by Mrs. G. Cramer Dodge, who has been giving attention to the planning committee of the Library Association.

THIS I REMEMBER

By Eleanor Roosevelt

Were I to use all the superlatives at my command, I would still fall short of the mark in attempting to describe this magnificent book by one of the truly great women of our times.

This is not just a history of Mrs. Roosevelt's twelve years in the White House; it is a warm human chronicle of life in the Nation's Capitol, and of the many and varied personalities who played their parts there; told with complete candor and without rancor or bias. Many a lesser person would have become embittered by the gossip and lies told and printed about her public utterances and activities but with amazing serenity Mrs. Roosevelt refuted some and ignored others and at all times was unmoved from a set purpose once she decided upon a plan.

Here we are given at first hand an intimate view of incidents and personages as the author saw them. Well told anecdotes about her husband, her mother-in-law, her children, the Royal visit, especially the chapter about King George and Queen Elizabeth of England, Queen Mary, Queen Wilhelmina, Mr. Churchill, Mr. Vinson, Mr. Louis Howe, Bernard Baruch, Ernie Pyle and many, many others make fascinating reading. Without reservation she gives the facts as she saw them about the rift between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Alfred E. Smith; between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Farley, about packing of the Supreme Court. Her extreme frankness and impulsive nature which led her to be generous and enthusiastic in helping the poor and underprivileged may have caused her to overlook the importance of guiding people to help themselves and to open the way for such groups as the American Youth Congress to take advantage of her. However she was quite shrewd about many others, her evaluation of some of her husband's advisers, notably Henry Hopkins and Henry Wallace are very illuminating. The unqualified credit which she gives throughout the book to all who worked with her is typical of her unfailing loyalty.

Many have criticized her for her failures in disciplining her children. For that fault she was quite willing to take her full share of blame. She also, and without heat or animosity, placed squarely upon the shoulders of her mother-in-law and her husband, the share deserved by each.

There were even those who said she talked too much. One won't read far into this book before realizing the tremendous amount of secret information which came to her as wife of the President (especially in war time) and which was never revealed.

Other said she travelled too much. Consider the reasons for most of these trips. She was the President's best emissary and the most likely to acquire needed confidential information. Her trips in war time were made at the express wish of the President. Can anyone regard them as pleasure trips? All were dangerous, difficult and, at times, heartbreaking. Some of her best writing is about these trips. With all of her sons away at war, she acted as a second mother to the boys in the service, particularly to those in the hospitals. She literally walked miles through the wards. This moving quotation sums up her thoughts about these boys: "The gallantry of youth bearing handicaps which will be a cross all their lives, seems to me to be a theme for some great poet. Though the war had to be fought to preserve our freedom, their full reward for their suffering is not yet in sight. To see that it is paid in full measure is an obligation which all of us who lived through the war owe to the thousands who fought for it. If we do not achieve the real ends for which they sacrificed—a peaceful world in which there exists freedom from both aggression and want—we have failed. This is the challenge presented to the citizens of our democracy by the by the last war and we shall not have paid our debt until these ends are achieved."

The story of her husband's death with which the book ends is told with great dignity. Her own sorrow was completely sublimated to the demands of the occasion. Her thoughts were all for the grief of the American people in their loss. Her greatest consolation was the realization of what he meant to them as he viewed from the funeral train the mourning crowds who gathered and stood silently all along the way from Warm Springs to Washington, from Washington to Hyde Park.

An open book of one woman's life it ever there was one. Whenever your political convictions you will read it with interest and admiration.

Bradford Pleads Guilty

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Robert L. Bradford, 57, of 71-60 Manse street, Forest Hills, Queens, president of Business Resources, Inc., 11 West 42nd street, pleaded guilty yesterday to a mail fraud charge during the second day of his trial before Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman. Bradford will be sentenced January 12. He was on trial for defrauding the Worthington Pump and Machinery Corporation, 2 Park avenue, of $80,000. The complaint specifically charged that Bradford mailed $800 invoice to the Worthington company stating that he, as president of Business Resources, Inc., performed certain services for C. Neal Barney, a vice-president of the Worthington corporation, who died last April.

THE MONEY MONOPOLY

I wonder how many of my readers have ever had occasion to borrow money at banks. Sometimes the very best thing an indolent, thriftless person can do for himself is to apply for a loan. For credit officers at financial institutions are quick to inquire into the character and capacity of prospective borrowers. That is why it should be such a inquiry—often resulting in a refusal to lend—enables people "to see themselves as others see them."

My first experience as a borrower came when, as a minor and a sophomore at a New England college, I borrowed $100. A dozen logical questions were thrown at me: what class was I in; how would I pay the interest; and the principal; would my father (I wasn't 21 yet) sign the note with me; what was this money for; how were my scholastic grades—and so on.

My grades were satisfactory. Every summer I worked twelve weeks selling jams, jellies, pickles, peaches, marmalade from door to door in New Jersey cities during my vacation making several hundred dollars net. This loan was to pay board and college fees. Yes, my father would sign.

Now that is the way money ought to be loaned—on a low level or on a high level.

Then, in 1919, I went with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York City—the world's leading Trust Company and one of its top commercial banks. It was my privilege and duty there as a public relations representative to learn how lending on a large scale is carried on. Again, I found that character and capacity were greatly emphasized.

The credit reports I read there and helped to compile (I gathered information) had much in common with the verbal reports made to the officers of the banks in Schenectady county, New York, where I borrowed more than $1,000 during my undergraduate days. The bankers (please note) invariably set the rate of interest of the loan and its terms. The borrower was usually a lamb.

But in recent years, a borrower of automatic power with tremendous needs has come in to upset the applicant. He has leveled everybody and every institution down to him. Since 1930 there has been a money revolution in America.

Who is this borrower? Uncle Sam! Let any savings bank depositor in the United States ask any responsible officer of the bank where his deposit is, this question: "Why are you paying only half as much interest now as you did in 1929?" Don't let the officer dodge the question. Make him answer directly. The answer will be "Uncle Sam."

Or ask any investment banker why good industrial and public utility bonds are paying only half what they were two decades ago. Uncle Sam's name will be mentioned again.

Today Uncle Sam is borrowing over $256,000,000,000 and right now he is spending about $100,000,000 more a week than he is taking in. He can, through his agent, the United States Treasury Department, borrow billions upon billions of dollars. And name his own rate of interest.

On January 1, 1950, Uncle Sam has $5,694,000,000 of 1½ per cent obligations falling due. He has just announced that these will be exchanged for an equal amount of one year 1½ per cent obligations.

Furthermore on top of this, he announces that $4,894,000,000 of bonds and certificates due December 15, 1949 and carrying 2 per cent to 3½ per cent interest rates will be exchanged for a like amount of 4½ year maturity obligations carrying 1½ per cent interest.

The borrowing has become so gigantic that the pieces of character and capacity congenial in private and corporate lending have been lost entirely. Where is this money going? How much debt can the country stand? It just is not sensible that the bigger Uncle Sam's debts get, the cheaper he can borrow the money!

City Skating Rink

The rink include the banking with one foot of clay of the entire skating area.

Department of Public Works employees are checking temperatures daily and will flood the rink as soon as continued freezing weather assures a skating surface long enough to make flooding worthwhile.

The city engineer's office reported today that while night temperatures have generally been low enough to freeze water in ditches, the experienced men would run the skating surface.

Judging from past year, the department reported the best skating weather can be expected in late January and during the month of February. Several days of good skating weather should come during the Christmas holidays, after which the so-called January thaw interrupts skating until about the middle of January in the normal year.

New York Rejects Union Demands for Wages and Hours

New York, Dec. 8 (AP) — The city was set today for a showdown on the C.I.O. Transport Workers Union's threat of a pre-Christmas transit slowdown.

Mayer William O'Dwyer's administration rejected last night the union's demands for higher wages and shorter hours, and warned the T.W.U. not to engage in any slowdown.

The Board of Transportation told the union heads in a letter: "We caution you neither to threaten nor to attempt to carry out any threats against our citizens in a cheap, bullying effort to obtain satisfaction for your demands."

The T.W.U. had told the board on Tuesday night that unless it acted "very promptly" on the union demands there soon would be "a serious disruption of service" on the city-owned subways and other transit facilities.

The T.W.U. said the disruption would "drastically inconvenience" nearly 6,000,000 daily passengers on the subway and surface lines.

The city's position was made known in the letter from the Board of Transportation to Matthew Guinan, president of the T.W.U.'s Local 100.

The board said it does not have the money to meet any of the T.W.U.'s demands. And it told Guinan "you apparently are driving for another increase in fare, though you carefully refrain from so saying."

The letter had the approval of Mayor O'Dwyer, who is in Bellevue Hospital recovering from exhaustion and a respiratory ailment. He called in William Reid, chairman of the Board of Transportation, and other members for conferences yesterday.

The board said that granting the T.W.U.'s demands would cost the city $71,000,000 a year. The basic demands are for a wage increase of 21 cents an hour, and reduction of the work week from 48 to 40 hours without pay cuts. The average wage now is $1.49 an hour.

Guinan commented that the board's letter "is not designed to bring peace to New York city transit."

Quill Is Hopeful

London, Dec. 8 (AP) — International President Michael J. Quill of the C.I.O.'s Transport Workers Union said today he was "hopeful" of averting a go-slow move of 41,000 New York subway, bus and street-car operators.

But I have authorized the go-slow and have told the members of Local Union 100 to throw the whole book of rules at the New York Board of Transportation unless our demand for a 21-cent an hour increase and a 40-hour week is granted," he told a reporter here.

Quill added that although he had authorized the go-slow, "the ultimate decision is up to Union Local 100."

Quill has been attending the organization meeting here of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (I.C.F.T.U.).

Quill said Local 100 hopes to win its demands without resorting to the slow-down by:

1. Newspaper advertising and a radio campaign intended to back up its wage claims;
 2. Challenging Chairman William Reid of the Board of Transportation to a public debate on the union's demands;
 3. Distribution of 5,000 leaflets to passengers setting out what Quill called the "justice of the workers' case."
- Quill said he was told by long distance telephone last night that top representatives of the C.I.O., with which Local 100 is affiliated, were meeting with members of the Transport Board in New York today to consider the case.
- "If nothing happens, it is certainly reasonable to expect that there will be job action very quickly," Quill said.
- Quill labeled as "ridiculous" the Board of Transportation's estimate that compliance with the workers' demands would cost $71,000,000 a year.

Artists' Strike Settled

New York, Dec. 8 (AP) — A strike of 72 A.F.L. scenic artists and designers against four television networks and one local TV station was settled yesterday, without the strikers winning their basic pay demand. The strike, which started November 22 did not interrupt programs. The strike was against A.B.C., N.B.C., C.B.S., the Dumont Network and Station WPIX, of the New York Daily News. The union members design and make sets, and design or select costumes. The new contract will run until next October 1.

Police Seek 40 Hours

New York, Dec. 8 (AP) — Police men in 190 New York state communities will seek a 40-hour week and a 25-year retirement plan for policemen, an official says. John E. Today's Business Mirror

BY SAM DAWSON
New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—There's an air of cross-fingered optimism at the Waldorf-Astoria today. In its opulent grand ballroom, America's most glittering pageant of industrial might gets underway. And this time, as contrasted to last year, the boys attending the Congress of American Industry aren't scared half to death.

They were last year. Most of the three thousand top men in our manufacturing industries, who gather annually for the meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, were enjoying the very peak of record prosperity when N.A.M. met a year ago. But many of them were on record as warning that a bad slump could be expected in 1949. You could tell by the hair standing up on their heads.

This time, most of them admit, 1949 turned out to be a pretty good year after a bad start. And most of them appear to believe that 1950 will be a better one. Some even think a new boom may be starting.

Of course, there'll probably be a good deal of viewing with alarm during the next three days at the Waldorf-Astoria, held for manufacturers to face in the direction of Washington with confidence. And N.A.M. speakers will stress the things they think are wrong, dangerous or threatening in our economy, and list the things they'd like to see changed—particularly in taxes and governmental interference with business. But as to business prospects, most manufacturers are reported to be expecting to do better in 1950, especially in the first half of the year. And in this optimism there is some evidence that manufacturers lead both wholesalers and retailers. The last is closer to the public, and more impressed by the light styling John Q. is leaping on his pulse when he goes shopping.

Some 300 manufacturers were questioned at the end of November by Paul G. Hoffman, and 77 per cent said they expect to equal or exceed their 1949 first quarter levels in the first three months of 1950. New orders, 81 per cent predict, will equal or surpass last year's volume. The business agency interviewed an equal number of wholesalers and retailers, and found them a little less optimistic. However, three-fourths of all the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers queried, think sales volume in the first three months of 1950 will equal or exceed first quarter 1949. Two-thirds of them think next profits will be as good as better, and four-fifths of them hope to hire as many or more employees.

Members of N.A.M. are also cheered by the quick recovery industry seems to be making after the steel and coal strikes, and by the higher than expected level at which industrial production held during the strikes.

The census bureau reports this week a half million increase in the number of employed in November, a drop in the total of jobless from 4.4 million to 3.9 million. The manufacturing sector is counting on fairly steady buying from their customers, now that retail inventories have been worked down in many cases. And some in the N.A.M. may have caught the feeling prevalent in sectors of the industry, that inflation is about to play a return engagement. They cite, also, the high level at which consumer income holds.

And they count heavily on the expansion of the population. The high marriage and birth rates of recent years mean new customers are coming along all the time.

But look, too, for plenty of grim warnings from the Waldorf in the next few days as to what lies ahead if N.A.M. principles are ignored. And the grand ballroom is unlikely to respond to any proposed clearing for the fair deal, or John L. Lewis, or the administration's ideas on taxes.

And Paul G. Hoffman delicately brings up another thing. With notable restraint, the economic cooperation administrator, who was a manufacturer once himself, says in his prepared speech this morning:

"There is no need for me to condemn Russian communism to you gentlemen. There are not now and never have been any Communists in the N.A.M."

State Institutions Grew $3,561,300 in Produce

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 8 (AP)—Dairy products, meat and vegetables worth $3,561,300 were produced at 43 farms operated at state institutions during the year ended Nov. 1.

The Agriculture Department, which announced the figure yesterday, said record production was registered for all commodities except potatoes.

Lower market values and the drop in potato production reduced the total value below the record $3,835,246 set last year. All products are used by state institutions. The farms are manned by inmates and patients.

The production figures were announced at the annual meeting of institutional farm managers and head farmers. The three-day meeting ends today.

Production totals were: Milk, 13,053,240 quarts; vegetables, 10,396 tons; meat, 1,331 tons; eggs, 874,579 dozens; potatoes, 50,708 bushels.

The 1948 potato yield was 108,709 bushels.

The highest production totals by institutions: Vegetables, 1,063 tons, and meat, 83 tons. Plgrim State Hospital at Brentwood; eggs, 46,864 dozens; Central Islip State Hospital; milk, 902,923 quarts. West State School and potatoes, 1,074 bushels; Attika State Prison.

Damaged Toys Are Sought for Repair By Yule Committee

This year for the first time the Community Christmas Cheer Committee is accepting badly mutilated toys for repair and distribution as Christmas presents to underprivileged children.

Major Helena Clearwater, committee chairman, disclosed today that arrangements have been made with officials of the Wallkill Medium Security Prison for major repair work on damaged toys.

They were glad to get even the very broken toys, Major Clearwater, a retired army nurse, said today.

In past years, minor repairs only could be made by firemen and other volunteers at the Central Fire Station here. This year, the toys in bad condition are sent to Wallkill where the necessary equipment for major repairs is available. The toys then are shipped back for distribution to children in this city.

Toys are still being accepted at the Central Fire Station, Major Clearwater said. Those which cannot be repaired in time for use as Christmas gifts will be distributed to needy children later in the year, she said.

Disrobed Woman Calls on Fireman

Milwaukee, Dec. 8 (AP)—So what would you do if Lady Godiva, minus the horse, suddenly appeared in your room?

A 53-year-old city fireman, charged with disorderly conduct, said Judge John S. Barry he considered throwing the lady out. After all, he said, she was undressed.

"But that didn't seem quite the thing to do—it was pretty cold outside," he continued.

He finally succeeded in persuading the lady to wrap his bathrobe around her. But she wouldn't go home. He admonished. He reproached. He enjoined. He begged.

She stayed. Then her husband arrived and asked if his wife was there. The whole thing seemed so fantastic, the fireman said, he answered, "No."

Anyway, he told the court, he didn't know the woman's name or the name of the man at his door. The husband returned with a police officer. The fireman was just denying that the woman was there when she appeared behind him, still wrapped in his bathrobe. He was arrested.

The woman testified she "stepped out" after drinking two glasses of beer. The husband and the family doctor told him she was reacted to liquor that day. Judge Barry dismissed both cases.

A.M.A. Taps Members

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—The American Medical Association voted today to tap its members $3,000 a year, partly to finance its scrap with the Truman administration over proposals for government-administered medical care. The house of delegates, legislative body of the doctors, approved unanimously $25-a-year compulsory dues for A.M.A. members. Then they applauded a declaration from American Legion Commander George Craig that "we want to join with you" in the A.M.A.'s fight against "socialized medicine."

Aluminum Plants Open

Pittsburgh, Dec. 8 (AP)—Eight Aluminum Company of America plants which have been strike-bound since October 17 began opening today to prepare for full-scale production. The 17,000 C.I.O. United Steelworkers at the plants are covered by a new contract which gives them wage adjustments, pensions and insurance. The agreement, reached yesterday, provides $100 monthly minimum pensions, including Social Security, and social insurance benefits.

Would Bar Amateurs

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—The American Federation of Musicians may seek to bar amateur bands from events at New York city's three big baseball parks, Yankee Stadium, Ebbets Field and the Polo grounds. This was hinted by the A.F.M. Union's Local 802 yesterday, following its action to keep current fights away from college baseball games at Madison Square Garden.

Tolson Okays Bond Issue

Employees of the Tilton Fire District approved by a vote of 71 to 26 the proposition concerning the bond resolution adopted last month by the board of fire commissioners during a special meeting earlier this week. The resolution calls for expenditure of $13,000 for various construction and repairs and also for the issuance of bonds not to exceed $13,000.

Cotton Crop Estimated

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—The Agriculture Department, in its final report of the year, today estimated the 1949 cotton crop at 16,034,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. This estimate is 510,000 bales more than the 15,524,000 bales forecast a month ago. It compares also with 16,877,000 produced last year and with a 10-year (1938-47) average of 11,306,000.

Takes Vacation

Letter on Crashed DC-6 Received

Miss Rose Emma Mayone of R.F.D. 2, Saugerties, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Michael Abdallah and family in Dallas, Texas, received a letter on the American Airlines DC-6, which crashed at Dallas with the loss of 28 lives. The plane, American Airlines' 44-245, was bound from New York to Mexico City.

The letter was sent by Mary Dale Mayone of R.F.D. 3, Box 360, Saugerties, and was postmarked November 28 at Kingston at 11 a. m. The plane crashed on November 28 at 5:45 a. m. at Love Field in Dallas. The envelope was partially burned and carried the notation, "Damaged in air crash November 28, '49 Dallas, Texas."

Publication Is Asked

Riverhead, N. Y., Dec. 8 (AP)—Sixteen Suffolk county officials have asked for publication of a suppressed grand jury presentment to clear them of "a cloud of suspicion and distrust." The request was made yesterday to State Supreme Court Justice Percy D. Stoddard, who refused to accept the presentment (statement) from a grand jury that ended its investigation of gambling charges on November 29. Nine of the 16 county supervisors—all that were present—passed the resolution unanimously after seven other officials joined with them in the request.

It is estimated there are 300,000,000 people in the Western Hemisphere.

Certificates Filed

A certificate of dissolution has been filed with the county clerk by Pat's Diner at Milton, former conducted by Patrick Mataraza and John Vespa of Milton. The business will be continued by Patrick Mataraza.

John A. Horton of town of Montgomery, Orange county, has filed a certificate stating he is doing business under the name and style of Walkhill Live Stock Market, at Walden, R.D.

Joseph Scaglione, Anthony Garofalo and Vincent Molinari of Bayonne, N. J., have filed a certificate stating they are doing business in Ulster county under the name and style of The Sunshine Resort Hotel.

Economic Harm Feared

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—A labor union wants Congress to study the possibility that moving defense plants inland from seacoasts may do more economic harm than military good. The question was raised by the Executive Council of the Independent International Association of Machinists in letters to President Truman and all members of Congress. "The cure may be worse than the disease," Union President Al Hayes told newsmen. He referred to the recent problem, especially by the air force, of urging defense plants to move away from areas where they might be vulnerable to bombing in any way.

More and more "oldies" are becoming the accepted short term for television just like radio developed from wireless.

Third Defendant

the pro-fascist government of King Boris.

The defendant also are charged with plotting with Tito to murder the late premier, Georgi Dimitrov, who died in Russia last July of a liver ailment.

A special seven-man court, headed by the president of the supreme court, Judge Boris Loezov, is hearing the trial. There is no appeal from its verdict.

The charges are similar to those made in Hungary against former Foreign Minister Laszlo Rajk, who with four of eight co-defendants was hanged in October.

The trial is being held in the auditorium of the army headquarters, which seats 400 journalists and spectators, rather than the smaller Palace of Justice where such trials usually are held. Bulgaria's Communists ousted King Boris from his deputy premiership and the party's ruling Politburo last April. They accused him of having nationalist and anti-Soviet ambitions. Later he was dropped from the Communist party.

Kristov and his 19 fellow defendants already have been publicly condemned at thousands of mass meetings in villages and factories throughout the country. The meetings adopted resolutions demanding the "heaviest punishment."

Angell Escapes As Train Hits Car

Edwin H. C. Angell, 38, president of the Canfield Supply Company of this city, escaped with minor cuts and bruises when his automobile was demolished by a freight train near Catskill early today, state police at Catskill reported.

The train struck the automobile from the rear as the automobile was riding along the tracks, troopers said.

Angell told state police he was traveling north on Route 9W, and about five miles south of Catskill he mistakenly took a right turn leading into the North American Cement Plant. He followed this road to the railroad tracks, where he made a left turn and straddled the tracks for a distance of about 2,000 feet before being struck by the freight locomotive, state police said. The accident happened about 2:30 a. m.

Taken to Greene County Memorial Hospital in Catskill, Angell was treated for cuts and was released, state police said. Angell resides at 248 Clinton avenue in this city.

Russia Got . . .

that to his knowledge, the former vice president saw only one of the reports on the wartime atomic project written by Groves in 1943.

He explained the secret reports were made available to the President, certain high military leaders and scientists and, on one occasion, to Wallace.

Groves said he personally took the report to Wallace's office and was kept waiting for some time by other visitors "who did not seem to me very important to the war effort."

After showing the report to the vice president, Groves related, "I made up my mind that this would be the last time I was going to show him a report."

What's more, he added, Wallace "practically divorced himself from the atomic project."

So far, the committee says it actually knows of only three atomic shipments to the Russians, all in 1943. The first was 420 pounds of uranium oxide and nitrate, the second, 1,000 pounds of the same. The third was a sample of about two pounds of uranium metal that wouldn't have done the Soviets much good.

But the committee members say a thorough check of some old lend-lease records indicates there may have been a 500-pound shipment of compounds in mid-1944. And they think these records may establish definitely that Russia got the heavy water for which an export license was issued in November, 1943. Heavy water is useful in atomic experiments.

And this is why the committee is digging into that second 1,000-pound shipment.

Groves testified yesterday that, according to lend-lease records, he approved it. But he said, "I believe . . . you will find it was not approved."

The late John L. Baird in England is credited with being the first to demonstrate color television, the year being 1928.

Negligence Action Heard in Court

A negligence action was taken up for trial in Supreme Court today before Justice Roscoe V. Ellis and a jury.

The action arises out of a car collision between the cars of Bessie Berlanga and her husband and the car of Dr. Virgil DeWitt and his wife of New Paltz. William A. Kelly and Guido J. Napoleano appeared for the plaintiffs and Andrew J. Cook, Sr., of Cook & Cook for the defendants.

Jurors not on the case were excused until Monday at 10 o'clock after the jury to try the action had been completed.

A negligence action brought by Philip Slutsky against Robert Harvey Osterhout, which headed the day calendar, was dismissed without costs.

Settlement was also announced in No. 111, Frank J. Dubias against Kathryn E. Murphy.

Civil Liberties Union Blames Anti-Semitism for Violence

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—The American Civil Liberties Union says it has found evidence that the Paul Robeson concert riots near Peekskill, N. Y., were provoked by anti-Semitism, and not by Communists. There were strong indications that "the violence was planned and carried out according to plan," the A.C.L.U. said in a report yesterday after an investigation.

The report said effective police protection "was deliberately withheld" from the first concert, August 27. At the second concert on Sept. 4 the policing was better, but the Westchester county police "fraternized with the rioters," the report said.

Tensions had arisen in the community, the A.C.L.U. said, because of an influx of 30,000 "summer colonists" who are "for the most part Jewish traders, lawyers and doctors... or professionals in the arts."

"These mainly Jewish summer residents," the report continued, "were not wanted in and around Peekskill except by those whose business advantage depends upon them."

The report told of anti-Semitic epithets hurled at concert-goers and of anti-Semitic stickers on automobiles and buses.

"Transcripts made by radio reporters at the second riot record a new and fearsome epithet, 'white niggers,' shouted at Jews seen associating with colored people," the A.C.L.U. said.

The A.C.L.U. investigated the riots as part of its work of defending and promoting civil liberties without respect to politics.

Robeson, the left-wing Negro baritone, canceled plans to sing at the first concert, because of clashes between veterans' groups and concert-goers. He sang at the second concert, which was followed by rioting and stoning of autos of concert-goers.

The A.C.L.U. report said "terrorism was general against all who advocated freedom of speech, freedom of assembly and preservation of constitutional rights."

It declared that police preparations for the second concert "appeared adequate but were largely a sham insofar as the Westchester county police were concerned."

The report added that "at least some" state troopers "honestly tried to preserve law and order."

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, in a statement issued after studying reports of state police and county authorities, said state and county police "used every reasonable method to preserve peace and order at the meeting" and "were successful at this despite very great difficulties."

The A.C.L.U. report stated that as an aftermath of the rioting "there is evidence that the legal authorities plan to restrict freedom of speech and freedom of assembly in violation of the constitution."

It was announced that the A.C.L.U. will challenge two Courtland, N. Y., ordinances in the courts next week on the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the Bill of Rights.

The report described the ordinances as requiring permits for meetings or speeches on public highways, and "making it a criminal offense to give a speech or hold a meeting which is intended to break down law-enforcement."

The effect of the latter, the report said, "would be to penalize the sponsors of a meeting if it were attacked by an outside group."

BY WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

I received today's hand from Jack Lehrfeld, of New York City, a tax expert, which he sent me in care of the World-Telegram. Mr. Lehrfeld has played a lot of bridge with Freddy Hirsch, one of the country's life masters.

When the four of clubs was led by East, Mr. Lehrfeld, sitting North, started counting his tricks. He could see one spade, five diamonds and two clubs, only eight tricks and he needed nine. Therefore, he had to figure out a way to make another trick.

From the bidding he was quite sure that East, who was vulnerable, held the ace of clubs. Also the ace of hearts and possibly the queen of hearts.

If he tried to make a heart trick he would lose the timing on the hand. East would get in twice and his club suit would not set up and if East had a five-card club suit the contract was automatically down.

Mr. Lehrfeld decided he might have a squeeze or end play on East. With that in mind he won the first trick with the jack of clubs. Then he led a small diamond to the ace, which held the trick. The jack of diamonds was played and when East showed out, Mr. Lehrfeld did not overtake in dummy.

A small club was played which East won with the ace and returned a club. Dummy won this trick with the king. Now the three good diamonds were played, on which North discarded two hearts and a spade.

East, who had discarded a small heart on the second diamond trick, now discarded two small spades and the queen of hearts. Dummy led a small heart which East had to win with the ace and now he was helpless. All he could do was to cash his two good clubs and return a spade, which North won in his hand with the queen. The ace of spades took the last trick.

If Mr. Lehrfeld had not stopped to analyze the bidding he could not have made his contract. I feel sure many players would have made the mistake of trying for a heart trick.

As Pegler Sees It

mosphere owned by the United States.

Taking up a lying statement by the Droop that Pegler had compromised a previous suit by Pearson by publishing a retraction and paying him a "settlement," the answer continues: "Plaintiff and his co-plaintiff, (John N. Wheeler) visited the offices of the employers of said defendant, Westbrook Pegler, and begged and pleaded with said employers to permit them to withdraw their action, before the defendant's attorneys could serve and file their amended answer. Accordingly x x x plaintiffs were permitted to withdraw the same without payment of costs, without receiving a retraction, correction or further statement without assurances of any kind. Nevertheless the plaintiff, in accord with his invariable mendacious proclivities," reported that he had received a settlement and a retraction and a promise that Pegler would not write about him any more.

All such statements were false and false x x x the plaintiff feared to face the issue as to whether he was a faker, liar and blackguard and could be duly proved to be such.

"In connection with defendant's allegations that said plaintiff is a habitual, incorrigible professional liar, as distinguished from an occasional or accidental liar, defendant alleges that said plaintiff was publicly designated a chronic liar by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt," whose son, you see, is now a member of the law firm that is trying to prove that Droop isn't a lying blackguard.

With respect to the veracity of said plaintiff, Hon. Harry S. Truman, President of the United States, stated on the 11th day of March, 1948, and stated truthfully: "I had thought I wouldn't have to add another liar's star to that fellow's crown but I will have to do it. That is just a lie out of whole cloth. That is as emphatic as I can put it."

There are 28 citations of instances in support of Pegler's sprightly opinion of the Droop, let alone A. B. C. and so forth and the poem comes to a sickening end with the statement which plaintiff now probably will construe as an apology, "the aforesaid plaintiff is a liar, faker and blackguard from A to Z."

This may not be the sweetest story ever told but it has its points, at that, and now the fat is

In the fire, I pondered rather hostily whether to name the author of Mr. Pegler's lie. Because he sort of makes Mr. Pegler sound palid and propitiatory, and he might crowd him out of his job. However, a man, with that gift can't be denied, anyway, so you might as well know that this idyl was composed by Charles Henry, of the law firm of McCauley and Henry, New York.

French vs. U. S. Wines

Hollywood. (P)—There is room for both French and California wines on America's dinner tables, says Ernest Des Baillets, a vintage connoisseur. France has yet to be surpassed in making "really fine" wines, but it can't compete with lower-priced wines produced in U. S. Des Baillets expressed these views after returning from a 23-day tour of such French vineyard areas as Anjou, Touraine, Bordeaux, Cotes-du-Rhone, Alsace, Champagne, and Cognac. Fine French wines are tops, he said, because of differences in climate and soil and the more personal supervision of the product. Des Baillets added that contrary to some reports, the Germans did not take the best wines out of France.

Customers' Corner

The anti-trust lawyers who want to put A&P out of business don't like our low price policy. They say we use it to drive competitors out of business.

Actually, as every customer knows, our low price policy is designed to do just one thing: Give you more good food for your money.

Here are the facts about our low price policy:

1. We keep our profits at a minimum. They averaged less than 1 1/2 cents on each dollar of sales during the past five years.
2. We have for years had a strict policy against below-cost selling.
3. We do not have any "week-end specials" but feature low prices the whole week long.
4. We charge the lowest practical prices everywhere we operate.

That is why we say, regardless of where you live, you will save money week in and week out by doing all your shopping at A&P.

Hunt for $5 Ends in a Tie

San Bernardino, Calif. (AP)—Carmen Garcia, 23, tonight still is hunting for the $5 he had lost in a tie. Officers spotted him in a railroad yard anxiously scratching dirt from under ties. Garcia explained that a switch engine fireman had left him a $5 loan under one of the ties, but neglected to say which one. He was jailed on a vagrancy charge.

Seal Sale Brings $9,822 Thus Far

As the 1940 Christmas Seal Sale in Ulster county enters its third week, receipts of the first two weeks total $9,822.43, which is 45 per cent of $22,000—the minimum needed for the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association's 1950 program, it was revealed today by Edmund P. Rockford, county Christmas Seal Sale chairman.

With three weeks of Seal Sale remaining, Rockford pointed out there is a good chance the county will reach its quota. He urged, however, that returns be made as soon as possible.

"Early returns mean that the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association can go forward promptly with its 1950 plans to protect the health of the community," he added. "For the association's program of tuberculosis prevention and control for the coming year depends on the success of the 1940 Christmas Seal Sale since the sale constitutes the association's sole financial support."

The expanded program and additional projects planned by the tuberculosis association for 1950 in Ulster county depend on the success of the Seal Sale. Rockford stressed. Projects carried on by the association include assistance in the program of tuberculosis prevention and control through our aid to the official agency in the community chest X-ray surveys; bringing up-to-date information through talks, films, discussion group meetings, pamphlets, exhibits, etc., in the tuberculosis, social hygiene, nutrition, and mental health programs.

Stamp Club Meeting
A regular meeting of Colonial City Stamp Club will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at 113 Fair street.

OLIVE BRIDGE

Olive Bridge, Dec. 8.—Due to inclement weather last Friday the comedy, "The Singing Saints," will be repeated Saturday, Dec. 10, at the I.O.O.F. Hall at 8 p. m. Tickets for last week's performance will be honored.

The monthly official board meeting of the church was held Monday night at the home of Mrs. James McGoughlin. It was decided that a sufficient sum had been acquired to proceed with the purchase of a new organ for the church. A unanimous vote adopted this suggestion.

Many local residents are planning to attend the concert by the Catskill Glee Club Friday night at the Ashokan Methodist Church.

Mrs. Mabel Weidner was a Sunday visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Davis.

Mrs. Ingrid Davis was a visitor in Kingston Monday.

Arthur Sampson is reported to be ill.

The Rebekah's will hold their annual Christmas party Thursday night, Dec. 15.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function provokes poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, heartaches and dizziness. Frequent or empty passages with smearing and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's gives speedy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Lynch Is Appointed

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 8 (AP)—Governor Dewey today appointed Peter E. Lynch of Glenwood Landing and John J. McCarthy of Bellerose Harbor, Queens, as members of the Fire Advisory Board of the State Division of Safety. McCarthy, a former assistant chief in the New York city fire department now is a fire prevention consultant of the State Hotel Association. Lynch is deputy fire marshal of Nassau county.

Advice for Railroaders

A representative of the railroad retirement board will be at the examiner's room, second floor, New York Central Railroad station, on Wednesday, December 12, between the hours of 1 p. m. and 3 p. m. for the purpose of rendering assistance and advice to railroad workers in connection with matters concerning applications for retirement, applications for death benefits, and answering any inquiries in connection with the Railroad Retirement Act.

Do You Remember
by
SOPHIE MILLER

Folks have asked me, now since the breaking of ground for the West Shore elimination, "say something about the railroads of Kingston." Judge Clearwater covers the development of Kingston as a railway center on page 222 by stating: "In 1865 and 1866 the railway fever struck Kingston. In the latter year it broke out on two sides of the town, and local capitalists were induced to start the projects. Both proved costly for the people of Kingston and the various towns through which the roads ran. But in the end all have benefited beyond estimate. The Rondout and Oswego, was the original title of the company, now known as the Ulster and Delaware Railroad. The purpose then was to build to Lake Ontario. It was afterward changed, on the reorganization of the company, to the New York, Kingston and Syracuse, and finally to the present title, in June, 1875, when the road came into the ownership of Thomas Cornell. It is now (1917)—when Clearwater's book was written) in full operation from Kingston Point to Oneonta, 108 miles, and from Phenicia to Hunter and Katerskill, 22 miles. The track is steel, standard gauge, and the equipment of modern approved character. It has proved the great developing factor of the Catskills as a summer resort, and of incalculable value and importance to the people of Kingston, bringing a vast amount of trade and produce from the interior mountain region of Ulster and other counties. It has also added materially to the population of the town, and become an important outlet for coal. The extensive railway shops in the lower part of the city are operated by electricity, and furnish employment to hundreds of men. Samuel D. Coykendall is president of this railway system, and road owned almost entirely by him. It carried nearly 500,000 passengers last year." Remember the U. and D. Shops on the Strand?

"In 1866, the Wallkill Valley Railway was projected from Montgomery, Orange county to Kingston; first terminating at New Paltz, next at Rosendale, and finally reaching Kingston. It passed into the hands of Messrs. Cornell and Coykendall in June, 1877, and afterward became the property of the New York Central Railway Company, by whom the line is still operated."

Then came the West Shore Trunk Line. The completion of this double track road to Kingston was an event of highest importance. The first passenger train left here for New York on morning of June 25, 1883, and during that day the incoming trains were met by bands of music and the ringing of bells. A few weeks later the road was opened to Albany and Syracuse.

Still another railroad on its way. In 1902 the Ellenville to Kingston branch of the Ontario and Western Railway was built and opened for traffic. The first train left Kingston December 22, 1902. Before that this fertile valley of the Rondout Creek to Ellenville had only a feeble stage line, and the old canal for its transportation facilities. What before trains to Kingston, Clearwater explains with the following: "Early in the last century a stage-line between Albany and New York on the west bank of the Hudson, and through Kingston, was established. Three trips a week were made during the winter season, continuing thus until December 20, 1814, after which four horses were attached to each stage and daily trips were made either way, except Mondays. The changes were made at Goshen, New Paltz and Catskill. This method continued until 1820, prior to which the Kingston people had no daily stage for the metropolis on the west side of the river, and during the close of navigation they had to get their mail by way of Rhinebeck." Clearwater explains.

Ewig Night Slated By B'nai B'rith For Ex-President

A prominent local attorney will be honored by B'nai B'rith, Saturday night, at the lodge on Wall street, in recognition of his untiring efforts in behalf of the organization and its programs that deal with activities of the community.

Announcement came from the committee chairman today that Arthur B. Ewig Night would be held for Kingston's former corporation counsel, who was responsible in great measure for acquisition of the present building.

Attorney Ewig, a past president of B'nai B'rith, has always been a moving force in progressive plans of our organization, and a great inspiration to the entire membership," the spokesman said in announcing the testimonial affair.

Aside from serving as head of the local lodge, Attorney Ewig holds the distinction of having held the presidency of the Upstate
New York Council of B'nai B'rith, which includes all of the Empire state except the metropolitan area.

All members of B'nai B'rith and their friends are cordially invited to attend Saturday's program in his honor. A well-known orchestra has been procured for the occasion. There will be no admission charge.

Plants Grow Inside Animals
Tiny green plants grow inside some one-celled animals, using up the waste gas produced by the animals. The plant, in turn, produces oxygen and sugar for the animal.

Soldiers Captured Fleet
The cavalry captured a fleet in the Netherlands during the French revolutionary war. The French involved Amsterdam at a time when the Dutch fleet was rebound in the Zuider Zee. Under General Pichegru the French flashed a cavalry unit rode out on the ice and captured the entire fleet.

Fruit and Honey
For a delicious fruit-and-honey dish put two cups of fresh cranberries through the food chopper along with a whole orange. Add a half cup of honey and let the mixture stand about 24 hours in the refrigerator before serving.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASITE on the alkaline (non-acid) powder on your

INCOME TAX HELP

If you have sold securities get a Worksheet and check your present capital gains position. If you're married and are going to file a joint return, combine your spouse's profits and losses with your own. The result may show you the need to sell additional securities to offset a taxable gain.
Through careful planning you may be able to control the amount of the tax you pay on your profits.
But you must act before the end of the year. Naturally, it would be prudent to check your estimate with your attorney or accountant.

Green Is Appointed
New York, Dec. 8.—State Housing Commissioner Herman T. Stiehmman announced today the appointment of Arthur L. Green of Mount Kisco, as assistant counsel of the State Division of Housing. Green will assist Commissioner Stiehmman in legal matters relating to Governor Thomas E. Dewey's statewide housing plan which includes $735,000,000 loan for slum clearance and public housing for the lowest income earning groups, and a rapidly expanding program of non-profit cooperative as well as rental housing developments built by private enterprise for lower middle income families. His salary will be $7,582.

Would End Strike
Oak Ridge, Tenn., Dec. 8 (AP)—Local A.F.L. leaders and federal workers worked feverishly today to stop a four-day wildcat strike which has halted construction of two giant atomic processing plants. The business representative of the Knoxville Building Trades Council, J. C. Kerr, said affiliated union heads voted last night to "make every effort to persuade their members to return to work." The President's Atomic Energy Labor Relations Panel, the National Labor Relations Board and the Atomic Energy Commission have been working with labor leaders in hopes of putting an end to the walkout involving about 3,000 workers.

No Deportation
A naturalized citizen of the United States cannot legally be deported to the country of his birth, or to any other country, according to American citizens who are naturalized or naturalized, a subject to the immigration laws of the United States. Between Afghanistan, Russia, Soviet Union and Pakistan.

Volunteers Use Familiar Chimney For Yule Funds

The Volunteers of America are conducting their drive for Christmas basket funds as usual this year through the medium of the familiar sidewalk chimney in front of Grant's store on Wall street.

A spokesman for the organization today stressed that the voluntary donation system is the only way the organization on Barman avenue has of raising funds to help the needy during the yule season.

"It is impossible to send out letters of appeal because of the recent drive for the support of our nursery," he said. "So the only means of getting money is through the chimney or from generous folk who desire to make contributions by sending money to us."

This year's list of needy families is expected to be greater than the 1948 roster.

Last year, according to the Volunteers, there were 41 families given Christmas baskets after a check with the welfare department revealed they needed help. A Christmas party was held for 70 underprivileged children and fruit and candy were sent to juvenile patients at the Kingston and Benedictine Hospitals and the Ulster County TB Hospital.

At the children's party, each little one received a toy candy and fruit from a genial Santa Claus. Bags of food for Christmas dinners contained chickens, potatoes, vegetables, dessert, coffee, milk, bread, butter, in fact all to make the dinner complete. Also there were included breakfast foods, and where there were older people in the family, there was a glass of jelly for them, also fruit and candy.

Approximately 5,000 trolley cars still operate in more than a score of American cities.

Dutchess Collects for TB Patients

Here's Dutchess, the educated cocker spaniel owned by Mrs. Jasper Martello, that picked up $104 tossed to her by patrons of her husband's restaurant and grill at 8 Van Buren street. Throughout the year she picks up the coins and puts them in her piggy bank to send to the Ulster County TB Hospital at Christmas time. (Freeman Photo)

E. P. Connolly Resigns

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Eugene P. Connolly (American Labor party) has resigned from the City Council in protest against the ousting of Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., former Negro city councilman. Davis, one of 11 national Communist leaders convicted of conspiracy this fall, was expelled from the council November 27. In quitting the council yesterday, Connolly said: "I want to make such protest as I can to show there is one councilman who still believes in the democratic concept." Connolly, who did not seek re-election this fall, would have finished his term at the end of the year. Davis, defeated in his bid for re-election, had about a month to serve when expelled.

Insects for Food
During World War 2, some U. S. military manuals pointed out that men stranded in the wilderness might sometimes get food by catching and eating insects.

Hearings Are Resumed

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Over State Public Service Commission and commuter objection, the Interstate Commission resumed hearings yesterday on the application of the New Haven Railroad for further increases in commution fares. The proceeding was conducted by Examiner Burton Fuller. The P.S.C. last June granted the road an interim fare increase averaging 10 per cent on intrastate traffic. In September, 1947, the I.C.C. allowed increases averaging 20 per cent on commuter fares between Connecticut points and Grand Central terminal. The present hearing is on efforts of the railroad to have the interstate rate brought up to the levels of interstate fares. More than three-quarters of American farm families have radios and sewing machines.

"The road needs a lot of support in more freight and new industry. Then it can live."

Rosoff said he had found the road bed in good condition and added that the rolling stock, which includes 35 Diesel locomotives, was "as good as any in the United States."

The O. & W. crosses a chunk of central New York from north to south and dips into northern Pennsylvania and northern New Jersey.

Rosoff's inspection tour will end tomorrow at Middletown. In 1945 he bought the El Paso Southern and Mexico Northwest Railroad.

He said he poured $3,000,000 into that line and that it was a paying proposition today.

The O. & W. main line runs from Weehawken, N. J., to Oswego via Cornwall, Middletown, Summitville, Casolia, Walton, Randallville and Oneida.

Branches serve Rome, Delhi, Utica, Port Jervis, Monticello and Kingston and to Scranton.

VanDuzer to Renew Fight on Car Taxes

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 8 (AP)—Assemblyman Wilson C. Van Duzer said today he would renew his fight to earmark gasoline tax and motor vehicle license revenues exclusively for highway construction and maintenance.

The Middletown Republican said he would introduce in the 1950 Legislature a proposed constitutional amendment to halt the so-called diversion of motor vehicle revenue. Such income now goes into the state's general fund.

A similar resolution by Van Duzer died in committee during the 1949 session.

Van Duzer said earmarking of motor vehicle revenues for highway use alone would not only make possible a program of improved highways but would entail a safety factor.

"This would mean lower insurance rates," he added in a statement, "because there would be fewer and fewer preventable accidents."

Creation of a "spot" fund of certain monies for highway purposes, Van Duzer said, also might eliminate the necessity of a bond issue at some future date for urgently needed highway construction.

Cattle Disease

In some regions of Europe, as many as 40 to 60 per cent of all the cattle are infected with Bang's disease, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Penicillin Aids Farmers

Washington (AP)—Development of penicillin has proved a boost for farmers says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Corn steep liquor and milk sugar are used to make penicillin. Studies are being pushed to develop other fermentation products in antibiotics, feed yeasts, vitamins and alcohol, the department says. One project is growth of mushroom spawn which is sold to have as good food qualities as yeast and tastes better. Other projects now try to find ferments that will use fruit pulps, dairy by-products and cannery wastes.

the time they were receiving jobless benefits, their chances of finding jobs once the benefits cease are not too bright.

Generally, states with highest proportionate unemployment also were leaders in proportionate number of exhaustions of unemployment compensation benefits.

California and Massachusetts are the two states showing the heaviest increase in numbers of exhaustions in July-September compared with the same period a year ago.

The number increased from 34,953 to 81,767 in California and from 18,753 to 59,238 in Massachusetts. States in New England and the southeastern section of the country also showed heavy increases in exhaustions.

New York state showed no exhaustions for the July-September quarter since it has a fixed 26-week benefit period which began in June. New York exhaustions thus will show up in later reports.

work is similar. In cases where the work being performed is practically identical, slight adjustments were made in the scale to permit payment of equal value for the performance of equal work.

An appropriation of $149,000 was authorized to carry on the work at the Tuberculosis Hospital in 1950. It is estimated the state reimbursement will be $58,005 and a resolution was adopted assessing and levying the sum of $91,000 against the county for the Tuberculosis Hospital. This is $14,000 less than last year when the appropriations was $105,000.

Hopes to Return Home

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—As soon as he is well enough, Li Tsung-jen, China's acting president, says he hopes to return to his homeland to "resume the fight against the Communist forces of aggression." The 59-year-old Chinese leader, suffering from what his doctors called "serious stomach disorders," arrived here yesterday by plane for a medical checkup. Several hundred Chinese-Americans, including a number of United Nations and other diplomats, greeted Li, his wife and two sons at LaGuardia Field. After a brief tour of Manhattan's Chinese community, he was taken to a suite at Presbyterian Hospital, where he will undergo medical examinations.

Libel Is Not Automatic

Toronto, Dec. 8 (AP)—There is no automatic libel attached to use of the word Communist in Canada, Justice A. M. LeBel ruled last night. An assize court jury returned a verdict in favor of Stanley Knowles, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation (Socialist) member of Parliament from Winnipeg Centre, who sued John Hlaudin, editor of a Toronto labor weekly, for $50,000 damages on the grounds that statements in the weekly were defamatory. The judge assessed nominal damages of $1 against Hlaudin. In his address to the jury Justice LeBel said "the allegations that the man was a Communist in 1948 are not in themselves libelous. But to impute that as a Communist he became the servant of a foreign state, that could be held as libel."

Jean Jacq Arrested

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Jean Jacq, 39-year-old unemployed milkman, of 600 Throggs Neck Road, the Bronx, was arrested on assault and robbery charges last night. Police said he was identified by a patient in Fordham Hospital as the man who held him up outside a tavern and took a wallet from him containing $25. Bronx Assistant District Attorney Wilfred A. Waltemade had Jacq taken to the hospital to face Paul Eggeling, a 38-year-old house painter, of 885 Edison avenue, the Bronx, who was assaulted last November 12 outside a tavern at 4700 East Tremont avenue, the Bronx.

Comic Books Banned

Ottawa, Dec. 8 (AP)—There will be fewer thrills for the kids in Canada. Parliament has banned crime comic books. The Senate last night passed a bill banning the publication, distribution or sale of comic books that depict "the commission of crimes, real or fictional." The House of Commons had passed the bill unanimously. Supporters of the bill said comic books stimulate juvenile delinquency. Violators can get up to two years in prison.

Calcium Needed

Both children and adults need adequate quantities of milk daily if they are to get calcium for the building and maintenance of teeth and bones. Cheddar cheese is also a good source of calcium.

To Confer With Vinson

Key West, Fla., Dec. 8 (AP)—Close associates disclosed today that President Truman will confer with Chief Justice Vinson before writing the final draft of his "State of the Union" message to Congress. Word came from the "White House" here that the Chief Executive has invited the sage Kentuckian here to enjoy the Florida sunshine and talk over high level administration strategy. These sources said there is no one in whose judgment the President has more reliance than that of his former secretary of the treasury.

Wadleigh Testifies

will try to show that the papers received by Chambers came from Wadleigh and others, not Hiss. Wadleigh testified that in 1935 he began handling government papers to a person recently identified to him as David Carpenter. Chambers, the key prosecution witness, has said Carpenter was a courier for the Communist ring. Wadleigh said he was with the Agriculture Department at that time. Wadleigh, a thin, bespectacled, 44-year-old man, now lives in Arlington, Va.

Wadleigh was shown enlargements of the Chambers microfilm papers by Prosecutor Thomas F. Murphy and was asked if he gave any of these documents to the spy ring.

"My best recollection is I did not," the witness replied. Elaborating, he said: "First, Mr. Murphy, with reference to these documents, especially the one in connection with the Germany memoir, I have not been able to recollect ever seeing the papers at the time they were prepared.

"It is possible I might have seen them and forgotten about them. My opinion, however, is I did not. I base that opinion on the main ground that I don't recall the document."

Wadleigh said he took government papers to Carpenter in a briefcase after work, meeting the courier on a street corner. They would be returned to him at the same spot the next morning, he said.

He told also of meeting Chambers at luncheon and dinner meetings. He said he continued seeing the papers until 1945.

The witness, son of a Cleveland, Ohio, family, was a Communist Party member but was a vocal anti-Communist. He was a member of the Special FBI Agent's Bureau. Chambers, testifying in the spy case, said he was a courier for the spy ring. He was shown a photograph of Wadleigh and said he recognized him.

Richmond, Va., Press-Examiner. Hiss could be named Communist ally in the U. S. was produced near Richmond, Va., in 1945.

Police Find Files In Ring Probe

Edgewater, N. J., Dec 8 (AP)— Police probing a theft ring they said stole a quarter of a million dollars worth of auto parts from the Ford plant here have turned up another unconnected theft.

Seven men were arrested in connection with the Ford thefts and 12 others were being questioned last night.

Looking for other members of the ring last night, North Bergen police came upon a cache of stolen machines. The worth $5,000.

Chief of Detectives Patrick
Sullivan said 30 cases of files were found in the garage of Vito Lanzoni of 2127 Hudson Blvd.
He said they were not part of the Ford loot, but were found to belong to the Nicholson-Philco Company of Rhode Island.

A company official identified the files as part of a shipment two months ago to Italy that arrived there 30 cases short.

Lanzoni's brother Joseph, who denied any knowledge of the stolen files, was arrested and booked on a charge of receiving stolen property. Police are looking for Vito Lanzoni.

Four of the Ford suspects were arrested Tuesday at the assembly plant here when police with tommy guns surrounded the building.

Two others were arrested by East Orange police yesterday charged with receiving stolen goods. Another was booked as a material witness.

Police Capt. Alexander Flannery said at least 100 employees at the Ford plant were questioned by police and Ford men from Detroit before the arrests were made in the spectacular raid.

The company estimated the value of the stolen parts at $250,- 000, but Flannery said he believed the loss would reach $500,- 000.

An inventory by the plant manager touched off the investigation, Flannery said. He said
"three or four fences (receivers of stolen goods) were involved in Hudson and Essex counties."

Ford officials said no authorized
Ford dealer was involved.

Milk Price Hearings

Woodbury, N. J., Dec 8 (AP)—
The first of two public hearings to determine future milk prices in New Jersey got under way here this morning. The second hearing will be held tomorrow in Newton.
Deputy Milk Director Chester D.
Schomp, who scheduled the two sessions, said he hoped testimony introduced by witnesses would provide an answer to the most pressing problem in New Jersey dairy circles today. How can fair prices to milk-producing farmers be maintained in the face of a steadily-increasing milk surplus?

Schomp said New Jersey farmers were producing six quarts this year for every five produced a year ago, while consumption has increased "but little" over the same period.

Charge of Leaving Scene Is Dropped

New York, Dec. 8 (Special)—A charge of leaving the scene of an accident, brought by Sackis Simonian of the Hotel Clinton, Yonkersville, pending in Special Sessions Court here against Robert Talloferro, 53, of Long Island City, L. I., was dropped Tuesday when the defendant was discharged in his own recognizance. Talloferro has been accused by Simonian of falling to stop to identify himself after he collided with Simonian's car at 57th street between Sixth and Seventh avenues here on the night of August 3. Simonian said $300 worth of damage was done to his car.

THE RUMINATOR

A Column of Contrary Opinion
By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

I see by the papers that a number of Russian economists have been fired from their jobs. It seems they have misjudged the evil capitalist nations. Having erroneously predicted that "we Americans" would suffer a severe economic depression the Kremlin crystal-gazers are now banished or benighted.

Let us hope that if alive, these chaps won't change their names and slip over to this country. We have enough economists now who make wrong predictions without adding to our bureaucratic overhead.

At the end of the war, you remember, our government economists agreed with their Russian counterparts—that we would take a deep plunge and have some eight million persons unemployed within a few months of the war's end.

It seems to me that the error in economic thinking, since the war has been, if it may be so bold as to parade my opinion—has been the fact that the war isn't over.

A state of war still exists. It is called a "cold war"—but from the standpoint of government spending it equals a shooting war in the outpouring of money. Professor Sumner H. Slichter of Harvard only recently remarked that "war and depression do not go together."

In writing on this economic conundrum that has had us all guessing for the past three or four years, I refer to the workings of our postwar economic system as "the boot-strap theory of economics." This portrays the idea, I think, of holding up the economy of our own nation and the economies of western Europe during this prolonged period of "peaceful bellicosity."

The straps are strong—made of good sound American dollars. So long as the dollars last the boot-strap theory will work.

And, it may be added, so long as the cold war lasts additional dollars will be forthcoming.

You may ask, "When will the dollars run out?" That is one of those imponderables that remains unanswerable. The credit of the United States is impregnable. Uncle Sam can still borrow many many billions before we reach the bankrupt stage.

Part of the answer may lie in this thought: So long as the people of this nation have confidence in the dollar in their pay envelope, we can carry a debt load that a few years ago would have been judged impossible.

However, this is not to say that this prolonged cold war is not a very great risk. It most assuredly is a great risk.

The government calls it "a calculated risk." Just what this means in official language is hard to define. It would have been more accurate to have said that "we are taking an avowed gamble that this game is going to pay off—but candidly we don't know." That would not be diplomatic, however.

There is very little calculation about it (as we use the word here in Vermont). Calculation means "to make certain of; to reckon; to determine by thoughtful reasoning, etc." What has actually been done is "to determine by guessing" that our policies will prove out.

Inasmuch as the United States is embarked upon a risk, then it follows that we cannot possibly forecast a positive outcome.

Right now, for example, we are in the midst of schooling western Europe on what they must do to make the Marshall Plan operate successfully. Mr. Hoffman has recently returned from telling the heads of the "Marshall Plan Nations" that western Europe must "integrate." Before his plane landed on these shores the right honorable heads of states were politely turning thumbs down on integration.

This gives you some slight idea of the "complicated complexities" that presently exist; and why it would be silly to guess "when the dollars will run out."

It is a bit ironical that although we cannot manage our own affairs without going in the red, we are attempting to tell Europe how she should manage her centuries-old precedents and nationalistic sovereignties.

With outrageous good luck we may get away with it over the long run. But the Ruminator would hate to place a very big bet on the final outcome's not costing us a good economic trouncing—and the depression the Kremlin has been saying "we ought to have."

Are Amending Laws
Yonkers, N. Y., Dec. 8 (P)—City officials—hoping for an upset of a state legal ban on harness racing at the Empire City Track—have started a move to amend city laws so as to allow night harness racing there. Recent state legislation bans any harness racing at the idle track, where running races were held until it closed during the war. The Yonkers Common Council will act later this month on a proposed local law filed yesterday by Deputy Mayor John J. Whalen.

Villagers Escape

Injury in Virginia

Woodstock, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Henry Barclay and Mrs. Gertrude Benton narrowly escaped injury when Mrs. Barclay's car was forced off the highway near Danville, Va., recently, while they were driving to St. Augustine, Fla., from Woodstock. The car went down a seven foot embankment and landed upright in a swamp. It was possible for them to open the door of the car and they were able to secure a wrecker in Danville, where they stayed a few days. At first it was thought that serious damage had been done to the car, but later it proved to have only a small dent in a fender.

Mrs. Barclay and Mrs. Benton will spend the winter in St. Augustine, and will return to Woodstock in the spring.

$350 Is Raised

Woodstock, Dec. 8.—Leon Carey has announced that the total amount derived from the two plays, "If Men Played Cards As Women Do," and "His Suppressed Desires," presented at the Woodstock Town Hall Dec. 5, was $350.

Lasher Re-elected

Woodstock, Dec. 8.—At the annual election on Tuesday, Dec. 6, Victor Lasher was unanimously re-elected as fire commissioner. Clark Neher was re-elected treasurer.

Remembrance Shop Opens in Village

Woodstock, Dec. 8.—"The Little Remembrance Shop" across the way from Elwyn's opened Nov. 28 in the small 100-year-old building which had once been the Bearsview Post Office.

Under the direction of Mrs. Madeline Mundy and her daughter Alice Williams of the A-R Ranch, the tiny shop features a variety of gifts, among them Mrs. Mundy's renowned nut bread as well as her pies. Alice Williams specializes in calico aprons, cookies and mittens, and small bags.

Sarah Cashdollar, whose interest in painting has developed similarly to that of the famous Grandma Moses, without instruction or formal training, has a number of small canvases on display.

Oddly shaped lamps in copper and brass cleverly utilizing common utensils are a unique feature in the shop, with shades from the Woodstock Workshop. The shades may be ordered separately from the lamps.

A varied selection of paintings, etchings, Christmas cards and thumbprint sketches have been placed on sale by Clarence Bolton, as well as thumbprint sketches with French frames by Miss N. O'Zanne, of England. In the still life and flower painting field, Mollie Smith's colorful pieces add a bright note to the shop. Pastels are to be had also by David Stoutenburg and Anderson. An attractive place in which to browse, this miniature shop with its gay red calico ruffles at the windows offers an inviting pleasant atmosphere to relax any busy Christmas shopper.

Village Notes

Woodstock, Dec. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hoyt of Poughkeepsie

and their daughter, Patricia, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cousins. Mr. Cousins' mother, Mrs. Eva Cousins left for a visit in Poughkeepsie with the Hoyts but will return to Woodstock in time for a family Christmas party.

Clifford Carwright whose hip was broken as a result of an accident with his horse, returns to his home today. It will be necessary for Clifford to remain in a cast from six to eight weeks, and although he is not yet up and about, his family is happy to have him at home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fischer drove to Grossinger's in Ferndale recently to visit Dr. William M. Hitzig who was severely injured in an automobile accident in October. Dr. Hitzig enjoyed a week at the famous resort and has completely recovered from his injuries. Dr. Hitzig and his two children, Rupert and Cayla, left Dec. 7 on a Caribbean cruise, after which he will return to his practice in New York.

Mrs. H. B. Meade Will Be Director Of Ulster Scouts

Mrs. Hazel Banks Meade of Middletown was named the new executive director of the Ulster County Girl Scouts to succeed Miss Hazel Metcalf January 1. Decision to employ Mrs. Meade was made at the regular county council meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Ernest Janson, secretary, in High Falls.

Miss Metcalf who resigned last summer was willing to remain as executive director until the council could find a person satisfactory to the job or until Christmas. She will leave the post at Christmas time and will make her home at 72 Rock Road, Glen Rock, N. J., for the present.

Mrs. Meade, the new director, has had experience in both volunteer and professional work with the Girl Scouts. She has been executive director for three years at New Bedford, Mass., and is coming to Kingston. She has three sons, two in college, and one in high school who will make his home with her in Kingston.

At the meeting Mrs. Max Chirlin, cookie sale chairman, announced that 9,376 boxes of Girl Scout Cookies had been ordered and were currently being distributed by the Girl Scouts. The project is netting the combined council and troop treasures $1,292.76.

Miss Emma Pratt of New Paltz was elected to the council and appointed public relations chairman by Mrs. Everett Coty, commissioner, for next year.

Christmas Candles

The annual Christmas candle lighting ceremony was opened at the council meeting. Mrs. Coty lighted the first candle and expressed the desire for "Peace on Earth, Good will toward men and a greater understanding among people throughout the world."

The various members lighted candles which they will return to the leaders in the various sections of the county for the troop ceremonies. During the next few weeks the troops will hold similar ceremonies and each girl will take a candle to her home to be lighted at 8 o'clock Christmas Eve with the wish for peace and understanding among all nations.

Casper Souers of the camp committee showed colored slides of camp life at Wendy, as well as some pictures from his trip to New England.

Miss Metcalf expressed her appreciation to the leaders and committee for their cooperation in the scouting program.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jansen, Mrs. Hart and Miss Anna S. Draudt of High Falls.

Others attending the meeting were Mrs. Casper Souers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Page, Kingston; Mrs. Donald Tinkle, Mrs. Robert Torrens, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Reis, Port Ewen; Mrs. DeWitt Hasbrouck, Mr. Jansen, High Falls; Mr. Coty, Napanoch; and Arthur Pritchett, New Paltz.

Gas Stations Are Robbed

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Two gasoline station attendants were robbed this morning on Manhattan's west side. Harry Stady, of Palisades, N. Y., told police that a man in his 20's entered the Skyway gasoline station at 42nd street and 12th avenue at 5:05 a. m. and pushed a revolver into his back. He said the man escaped with $85 after looking him in a washroom. Joseph Eggers, of 25-54 14th Place, Long Island City, Queens, who was in charge of Harry's gasoline station at 280 West street, told police that two men held him up at 5:15 a. m., took $80 from his person and fled after ordering him into a washroom. Police said they believed one of the men participated in both robberies.

Plane Wreckage Seen

Oakland, Calif., Dec. 8 (AP)—Wreckage of a missing commercial airliner with seven aboard was sighted today from the air near Pacheco, south of Martinez, in Contra Costa county, authorities announced. It was not immediately determined whether there were any survivors among the crew of three and four passengers on the California Airlines two-engine DC-3 plane. Ground rescue crews were rushing to the area. The plane, from Burbank, disappeared yesterday in a heavy rainstorm shortly after it took off from Oakland Airport for Sacramento.

U.N. Orders Hands Off

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—The United Nations Assembly today called on all the world to keep hands off China and to respect her frontiers. The Assembly also decided to keep a continuing watch over the Chinese problem—and Nationalist charges of Soviet intrusion—by referring it to the year-round Little Assembly. The hands-off policy was initiated by the United States with four other powers as co-sponsors.

Port Ewen Boy, 9, Hurt When Sled Strikes Automobile

Francis Longto, Jr., 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Longto of Hoyt street, Port Ewen, suffered injuries on Wednesday afternoon when the sled on which he was riding was struck by a car. Longto's sled was completely wrecked but the boy escaped with but slight injuries.

County Investigator Clayton W. Vredenburg said the boy, with several other children, was riding down hill on a vacant lot off Hoyt street. The route took the children across a ditch and over Hoyt street.

The boy was riding down the hill about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the 1938 Buick car of Charles Sorbello of Canal street, Port Ewen, driven by his wife Mary came over Hoyt street, traveling south. She did not see the boy until her car was almost upon him. He told the officers he did not see the car until he was about to strike it. Mrs. Sorbello, saving her car to the left to avoid the boy and stopped. The boy and sled ran under the car, swerving to the left and came out partially in front of the car. The lad was stunned by the impact and was taken to the Benedictine Hospital by the County Ambulance service where it was reported he had suffered no broken bones but was considerably bruised. His condition was reported as "good" this morning. He complained of pain in his back. Vredenburg said the fact that the car was considerably higher than present day vehicles, had apparently saved him from more serious injury.

Woman Dies of Injuries

Hudson, N. Y., Dec. 8 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Kegel, 63, of 141 Prospect street, died today in Columbia Memorial Hospital of injuries suffered November 24 in an automobile-truck collision on Route 23, about three miles east of here. She was a passenger in a truck driven by her husband, Joseph, 62. He is to be discharged from the hospital today.

Awaits More Signers

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—With mines producing 5,340,000 tons of coal a year under contract, John L. Lewis awaited fresh signers today as most of his miners took their first day off under the new three-day work week. The United Mine Workers' leader is trying to use the short work period as a lever against operators still holding fast against his contract demands.

Mrs. Baker Named Benedictine Auxiliary President; Annual Christmas Tea Held

Mrs. Allen A. Baker was elected president of the Benedictine Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary Wednesday afternoon at the business meeting preceding the annual Christmas tea. She will succeed Mrs. George F. Einterz, who has served two years as president of the auxiliary.

Also elected were Mrs. Einterz, first vice president; Mrs. Charles E. Davis, second vice president; Mrs. Frank Egan, third vice president; Mrs. James Mathers, fourth vice president; Mrs. Edward B. Loughran, fifth vice president; Mrs. Robert B. Canavan, secretary; and Mrs. Edward J. Dolan, treasurer.

Annual reports were submitted by Miss Dolores Mellert, retiring secretary; and Mrs. Walter Foster, retiring treasurer. The treasurer reported a balance of $196.93. In connection with the finances of the group Miss Anne Campbell gave the annual report of the Easter Monday Ball. She noted that the gross receipts were $4,343.35; expenses, $3,464.50; leaving net proceeds of $2,878.85 which has been given to Sister Berenice for use in the building fund.

Mrs. Einterz announced the New Year's Eve annual tea dance sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary and the older group voted a donation for the dance. The Auxiliary also voted contributions to the Sheehan Home Fund, Kiwanis Kapers and Christmas Seals.

Mrs. Marie Gilpatrick presented Mrs. Einterz with a gift from the auxiliary and Mrs. Einterz thanked all of the members and spoke highly of the cooperation she had received from her officers and committees. Mrs. Davis escorted the new president to the chair.

Announcement was made of the Christmas decorating committee. Miss Theresa Brophy will have charge of the hospital lobby, Mrs. Vincent Amatrano and Mrs. Dolan of the hospital.

Sister Berenice in her annual report to the auxiliary spoke of the need of looking to God for guidance in living. She recalled the important work of the auxiliary to the hospital.

Following the meeting, a musical program was given by several pupils of Miss Lina Schmidt-konz. Mrs. Carl Nadelet introduced the young people. Larry Glustino played the piano solo, Monnet, by Paderewski; Miss Gita Weintraub played Improvisation by Rheinhold. Miss Ruth Behrens sang two songs, My Song Would Fly All Unaided, and The Lassie with the Delicate Air. She was accompanied by Miss Ramona Leonard.

Ten was served during the social hour at a table decorated with poinsettias, silver candelabra with red tapers and silver tea service. Those who poured were the Misses George Kaufman, John F. Larkin, Bart Dutto, Edwin Ehlman, John A. Olivet, Walter Foster, Charles E. Davis and J. E. Gibbons. Arrangements for the tea were made by Mrs. Victor Ruzzo, Mrs. Marie Gilpatrick, Mrs. Lora Beecher, Mrs. Arthur Davis, Hostesses for the day were Mrs. William S. Bush and Mrs. Beecher.

Secretary's Report

The official annual report of the secretary follows:

"The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Benedictine Hospital welcome you here this afternoon to our annual meeting and Christmas tea with Mrs. Victor Ruzzo as chairman assisted by Mrs. Marie Gilpatrick and Mrs. Lora Beecher.

"Again we have come to the close of a successful year. Officers serving the auxiliary for the year 1949 were: Mrs. George Einterz, president; Mrs. Allen Baker, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Frank Egan, Mrs. James Mathers, Mrs. Edward Loughran, vice presidents; Miss Dolores Mellert, retiring secretary; Miss Miriam Halloran, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter Foster, treasurer.

"Through the generosity of the Knaut Family the Benedictine Hospital realized over $12,000.

"For the holiday season the members of the auxiliary decorated the lobby and hospital, spreading cheer and happiness among the sick. Gifts were distributed to the ward patients.

"At the beginning of the year a fund was started to furnish a room in the new wing. Card parties have been held in the homes of the members, proceeds being turned over to the fund. Sewing clubs, or anyone interested in volunteering to assist in this project are welcome to do so.

"The annual Easter Ball, sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary, was a success in all ways, $2,878.85 being given to Sister Berenice for use in the building fund. President Einterz and her cooperative hall committee are to be thanked for their efforts.

"Both the luncheon and bridge held at Judes in June and the dinner given in honor of the graduating class from the Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing held at the Nieuw Dorp in Hurley in September had a large turnout of members.

"During the year the meetings were very well attended. New members are constantly joining the Auxiliary. We were very fortunate this past year to have entertaining programs and guest speakers. A musical program was presented by the Kingston High School A Cappella Choir and vocal selections were rendered by Donald Sweeney Jr. A fashion show of summer cottons was presented by Goldman's Style Shop. Marcella Bianchi, supervising nurse of the County Health Department, spoke on cancer. Bessie Stowell from the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen presented an interesting lecture on weaving. Sir. Elmer Hagan, members gave an interesting and informative discussion on interior decoration. Mr. Linenthal of the Woodstock Playhouse discussed the reasons and advantages of putting on a benefit performance at the Playhouse. Claire Kelly, secretary of the Catholic Charities, reported on the activities of her organization.

"The treasurer's report showed a balance of $196.93 as of December 1, 1949.

"The Auxiliary cordially invites all members and friends to their meetings on the first Wednesday of every month.

"At the completion of this year we would like to offer our sincere thanks to everyone who by their effort and help assisted the auxiliary in attaining a successful year. The newspaper and Station WENY also gave us their strong support. May we ask for the future the same faithful patronage you have always shown the Auxiliary.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS DOLORES MELLERT,
Secretary.

Sister Berenice's Report

"Shocked and perturbed at the news reports of each day, we are all looking for and praying for a better world in which to live. Several years have passed since World War Two, and times are still confused with all kinds of difficulties and fast-moving events at home and abroad. The correct or real answer to these abnormal conditions is known by many, but not accepted. Human authority is being preferred to Divine.

"It was however, encouraging a few days ago to hear our President and many leaders in both religious and civic life ask for Divine guidance and wisdom in their efforts to promote peace and in their striving to make this a better world in which to live. These leaders thanked Almighty God for His many blessings, and for the abundance of material things with which He has blessed our nation. Evidence of this great benevolence of God must be a sign of His approval of the great charity and benevolence to the American people toward their suffering brethren in Europe. Forces for good are evident everywhere and it is astonishing how people help one another when called upon for aid.

"We at the Benedictine have reason to be forever grateful for all that the citizens of Kingston and Ulster county have done for us. The result of which, we trust will soon be materialized in the enlargement of our hospital.

"Since the nation's first wealth is the consideration of its health, the voluntary hospital today is rightly considered one of the most important institutions in every community. The interest of every people everywhere is being aroused for their cooperation and support. This thought predominated the recent convention of the American Hospital Association when they called the Ladies' Auxiliary one of the lifelines of every voluntary hospital. This title does not refer particularly to securing funds, but as acting in the capacity of ambassadors of good will in one's own particular community.

"Like every voluntary hospital today, the Benedictine boasts of a very loyal group of auxiliary members, who have been contributing their services over a period of many years. Mrs. George Einterz, our retiring president has served two years, and has had a most successful term in winning the confidence and cooperation of each member by her most gracious and efficient manner. Meetings were well attended during the year, and great enthusiasm was manifested as many new members were admitted. The membership committee headed by Mrs. Charles C. Davis was responsible for this increased number.

"Programs of worthwhile information and entertainment were provided for each meeting; all of which were appreciated and enthusiastically received by the members. Mrs. Bartholomew Dutto was responsible for these fine programs. The highlight of the auxiliary activities was the Easter Charity Ball which was most successful and netted $2,878.85. This sum was turned over to the Benedictine Building Fund. Through the years, the results of the Charity Ball and other activities of the auxiliary were always given to the general fund of the hospital for maintenance or enlargement of facilities.

"Other interests of the Auxiliary consisted in the luncheon for the graduating class of 1949, at which time a gift was presented to each nurse. Also the contribution of $100 to the Sister Aloysia Scholarship Fund.

"A committee in charge of Miss Theresa Brophy and Miss Ann Campbell devoted much time to the decorating of the hospital for Christmas.

"As usual, the Junior Auxiliary held their New Year's Dance at the Governor Clinton Hotel. It was a delightful social affair as well as a financial success. Their 1950 Tea Dance is now being planned. Your interest and cooperation for its success will be appreciated.

"In the passing of Mrs. Kathryn Taubenberger, the auxiliary and hospital has lost a most faithful and loyal friend.

"Today, Mrs. Allen Baker is being installed as president of the auxiliary. Mrs. Baker acted in this same capacity shortly after the war, and is therefore familiar with the duties of the office. She is also assured of the united and loyal support of the members.

"The management of the Benedictine Hospital takes this occasion to sincerely thank the Senior and Junior Auxiliary members for their continued interest and support.

"The time is with us now for women to accept the call of the Voluntary Hospitals, and to contribute their best services for their support in their particular community.

Good Taste Today

TILTING A SOUP PLATE

A reader takes me to task: "I was surprised that you said it was good manners to tilt a soup plate toward the eater. I'm a European and possibly this is an American custom I have as yet not learned. But I can't imagine why it should be improper."

Tipping the plate at all is not best manners, but it is permissible to lift it on the joint of your second finger and tip it away from you. Holding the rim down with your thumb and tipping the plate toward you, it is very easy to pour it in your lap—and possibly this is the reason why it has been considered bad table manners. To reach around the plate would be most awkward.

Telephoning Old Friend

Dear Mrs. Post: Could it be considered forward to a middle-aged married woman to telephone a man who had been an old "beau" when she visits in his city? He's married but I have never met his wife and have been out of touch with him for many years. However, there was no bitterness that separated us. (Would it make any difference in your answer if the woman concerned was a widow?)

Answer: There is no reason why you could not let an old friend know that you are in town. But whether he and his wife would be able to see you on such short notice is another question.

Overdoing "Thank You"

Dear Mrs. Post: Can't thank you be overdone? Whenever I go to stay with my married son it seems all I hear is "thank you." The children as well as the grown-ups say it for everything and even when they ask "please" in the first place. To me the repetitious monotony makes it mean nothing at all.

Answer: It certainly is better training for the children to overdo politeness than to let them become lax—which they can all too easily do.

Good-By To A Group

Dear Mrs. Post: When leaving a group to whom I was newly introduced, how do I go about saying good-by to everyone?

Answer: You don't! You say good-by to those with whom you have been talking and nod to any others who happen to be looking your way.

One of the most pleasant ways to entertain is to serve afternoon tea. Mrs. Post gives full details for preparing and serving in her leaflet "E-T."

To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Good Piano Would Be Welcome Christmas Gift for Children's Home Youngsters

Music has played a large part in the lives of the young people of the Children's Home this past year. The Musicians Union has given several concerts and the grade school orchestra has performed more than once which brings attention to the piano at the home which was donated by a kind citizen many years ago. The instrument is suffering from old age and possibly too much use.

Perhaps someone can replace this piano for the children. Someone may be getting a new piano for Christmas. The good used piano would find a friendly home at 77 East Chester street, a home where it will be more appreciated than one can imagine. Perhaps someone is moving to a smaller house or apartment and taking only the absolute necessities and the beloved piano is just a bit too large. If this should be someone's misfortune, he may change it to good fortune for the youngsters this Christmas by dropping a postal to Children's Home, 77 East Chester street, Kingston.

Sorosis Hears Personal

Account of Oklahoma Life

Sorosis Club met at the home of Mrs. Ward Brigham Monday afternoon. The paper for the day was given by Mrs. Eugene Pemberton on the subject Growing Up in Oklahoma. She described her life as a child in the state. She mentioned her father's first purchase being a revolver of which he was more frightened than of any of the animals or wild people he met there. The second purchase was rubber boots for the family as the mud was impossible to walk in. She noted that Oklahoma became the 46th state in 1907 and is settled by people from all nations.

Mrs. Pemberton reported the meager existence of the Indians and of those who suddenly found themselves fabulously wealthy when oil was found on their lands. She described the rush of growth of the towns, land losses for $1,000 and in three weeks selling for 35 million dollars if the oil was there. Indian girls came to school with diamond tiaras.

The paper described the oil drilling machinery invented so oil could be brought to the surface without disturbing churches, schools and homes that might happen to be directly over the wells. People made fortunes in inventions, Tulsa is the oil capital of the world and is a city of considerable size. Mrs. Pemberton believes the Indians still long for their old way of life.

She concluded with the words of her high school song which records the wonders of the state.

Principals at Rosendale Cancer Meeting

Attending the cancer meeting held in Rosendale Theatre, this week, were Mrs. Stephen Huber, Miss Elizabeth Schoonmaker, county health nurse; Dr. Edward F. Shea, guest speaker and Mrs. Andrew J. Snyder, chairman. (Freeman Photo)

Visit Tumor Clinic, Dr. Shea Tells His Rosendale Group

Addressing a cancer education program audience of approximately 100 at the Rosendale theatre Tuesday evening, Dr. Edward Shea explained the tremendous strides made in diagnosing and treating cancer, all of which have been due to research made possible by the American Cancer Society and other interested groups. To the point where little fear of the disease is rapidly being replaced by an awakened knowledge and intelligent awareness by individuals that cure of cancer is possible if early detection is promptly followed by proper diagnosis by a physician and immediate treatment.

"Of the three hundred thousand cases currently reported," according to Dr. Shea, "at least one-third to one-half are curable, depending on whether diagnosis and treatment were made early enough. Where cancer is suspected a physician should be consulted without delay—a matter of three days to three weeks can mean the difference between a cure or not. He emphasized the importance of surgery as still being the "big thing" in curing cancer, with X-ray and radium both helping to a large extent.

Dr. Shea stated that the Ulster County Tumor Clinic, now in operation is "unparalleled between New York and Buffalo" and that Ulster county went $5,000 over its quota in the last cancer fund campaign, being the only county in New York state to do so. He urged his audience to visit and inspect the clinic and see for themselves the excellent facilities that are now available to residents of Ulster county in the treatment of cancer. He commended Mrs. Harry VanWagoner, executive director of the Ulster County Tumor Clinic for her untiring service in promoting the clinic and directing the cancer education work throughout the county.

Dr. Shea's talk was followed by two movies, entitled "Traitor Within" and "Choose to Live," furnished by the Ulster Cancer Clinic.

The program was sponsored by the cancer education committee of the town of Rosendale, with Mrs. Stephen Huber officiating. Elizabeth Schoonmaker, public health nurse for the town of Rosendale, was introduced, as was Mrs. Andrew J. Snyder, chairman of the cancer education committee for the town of Rosendale.

Shortly after January first the Service Guild of the Rosendale Reformed Church will begin work on the production of surgical dressings for the Ulster County Tumor Clinic, under the direction of a trained instructor furnished by the clinic.

An appeal has already been made for soft, clean linen or muslin cloths and old sheeting for the outer covering of the surgical gowns. These are to be left at Mrs. Anna Aufderknecht's store in Rosendale, Joe Yunkers' in Bloomington and with Mrs. Robert Hicks in Cottekill. A request for these cloths has already been made to the committee by Miss Schoonmaker, but as none had been received one of the committee members hurriedly procured enough to take care of the immediate demand.

Appreciation has been expressed by Mrs. Andrew J. Snyder, for assistance rendered in presenting the program on Cancer Education, to A. Cacchio owner of the Rosendale theatre and his projection operator, Mayor W. Vaughn, the Misses Janice Plumb and Elizabeth Dierckx, others who helped to make the program a success.

Dorothy Coughlin to Be Bride.
(New York, Dec. 7 (Special).—A license to wed was obtained at the Municipal Building here today by Miss Dorothy Anne Coughlin, a laboratory technician, formerly of Kingston, now at 226 West 33rd street, New York, and Humberto Chirichigno, 201 West 104th street, also New York.

The couple said they would be married in St. Francis Xavier's Church in New York on Saturday.

Miss Coughlin was born in Kingston, the daughter of Edmund Joseph and Mary Hallinan Coughlin. Her prospective husband, the son of Mignel and Rose Chirichigno, is a native of Peru.

Pearl Harbor Is Topic at Meeting Of Naval Reserve

Captain Andrew S. Hickey, U.S.N. (retired), addressed the local unit of the Naval Reserve Wednesday evening, his topic was "Events Leading up to and after Pearl Harbor." Captain Hickey was stationed in Panama as Chief of Staff and cooperated very closely with Lt. General Jacob Devers, who was the Chief of Staff for the Army.

Shortly before the war broke out in 1941, Captain Hickey was Naval Attaché in Spain and was about to observe and evaluate the war situation as it was developing. Captain Hickey pointed out that prior to the attack of Pearl Harbor, Admiral James Richardson, who visited this city during the Hudson-Fulton celebration and who was in command of the Navy Forces in the Pacific, advised and cautioned against the concentration of Japs in Pearl Harbor. Upon Admiral Richardson's refusal to concentrate naval vessels in that area, he was relieved and succeeded by Admiral Kimmel, who with General Short, were charged with the responsibility for the Pearl Harbor disaster.

Captain Hickey further reported that one Ensign Vogt, who was a Naval Aviator on the U.S.S. Enterprise, reported that a fleet of strange ships were proceeding toward Pearl Harbor and that no action was taken and furthermore certain radar reports were made by Army personnel which was ignored. As a matter of fact the morning of Pearl Harbor the U.S.S. Ward, a Navy destroyer, sunk a Jap submarine at the entrance of Pearl Harbor.

All of the men who attended had a fine evening, which was followed by a question period. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the unit will take place on December 21st at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Building when Captain Stephen Magill will talk on "Fighter Direction," supplemented by his showing of movies. Refreshments will again be served.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

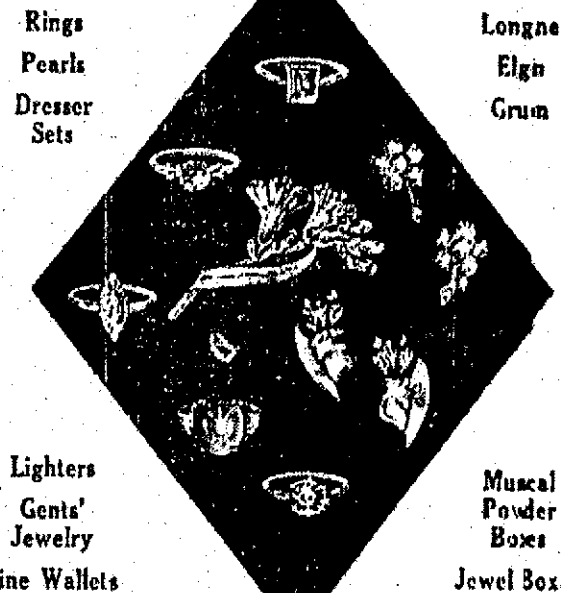

Troop 72
Brownie Troop 72, Church of the Comforter, made turkey favors at Thanksgiving. Their leader, Mrs. William Rowe, took them to the children's ward and the polio ward at Kingston Hospital. Everyone admired them very much, and the troop has received a letter of thanks. At present the girls are working on beanbags of different shapes to be given as Christmas gifts to needy children.

Troops 8 and 40
St. Joseph's Girl Scout troops 8 and 40 held an investiture in the church November 22. The Rev. James Keating, Girl Scout moderator for the parish, officiated. The program consisted of blessing of pins, investiture of new scouts, a short talk by the Rev. Father Keating and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Girls invested were: Troop 40: Margaret Coutant and Charlotte Niedewald; Troop 8: Jean Baker, Mary Ellen Duffner, Roberta Gallagher, Eileen Kelly, Valerie Millard, Lois Perpetua, Ruth Ann Raible, Ruth Simmons, Elizabeth Taylor, Jean Van Hoesen.

At present the girls are busy delivering cookies ordered from them last month.

Kingston District Leaders Club
The Kingston District Leaders Club will meet Monday 8 p.m. at St. Mary's School. This meeting will be the annual Christmas party. All members attending are asked to bring a ten cent gift to exchange.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, Dec. 8. The Priscilla Society of the Methodist Church held its Christmas party at the church house Tuesday night. A covered dish supper was served and tables were decorated in keeping with the holiday season. Games were attractively arranged. Christmas carols, each member received a Christmas gift. Miss Mary F. Bishop, in behalf of the society, presented gifts to Mrs. Charles Zimmerman, president, and Mrs. Samuel P. Tinney, secretary. The birthdays of Mrs. L. D. Barker, treasurer, and Mrs. George Castor, assistant secretary, were honored. Mrs. Fred W. Stine was in charge of the devotions. Christmas carols were sung during the evening and the scripture reading was the Christmas story in several readings. Musical voices. A short Christmas dialogue also was given by Mrs. Florence Ellsworth and Mrs. Stine. Those attending were the Rev.

Bloomington Vols Fight Chimney Fire

The Bloomington fire department was called at 7:15 o'clock this morning to fight a stubborn chimney fire in the house occupied by Eddie Rees on the Bloomington-Kingston road in the town of Ulster. It took the firemen nearly an hour to bring the fire under control, Chief Joseph Yunker reported, but there was no damage to the house, the blaze being confined strictly to the chimney. The fire apparently was caused by overheating of the chimney from the furnace.

Kingston High Opens DUSO Basketball Season Against Middletown

Ronnie Scheffel Lone Varsity Holdover; Middies, Fallsburgh, N.F.A. Rate High

Couch G. Warren Kins, "Mr. Basketball of the Hudson Valley," launches his 22nd campaign at Kingston High School Friday night against Middletown High at the municipal auditorium.

With only one legitimate varsity holdover from the 1948-49 DUSO and Section 9 champions at his disposal, the fabulous Maroon mentor faces sturdy opposition from Middletown, Fallsburgh and Newburgh Free Academy in the 1949-50 DUSO pennant chase.

Despite indications that Kingston is coming back to the level of other DUSO schools for the first time in a couple of seasons, there is no rejoicing in rival DUSO camps.

Scheffel Returns

The principal reason being the fact that Kins' lone varsity returnee is Ronnie Scheffel, one of the all-time basketball greats at the Broadway Institution. Whether one man can carry a whole basketball team is problematical. Young Scheffel, however, happens to be an unusual youngster once you clamp a basketball suit on him and he should be the difference between an average season and good season.

Although reports of K.H.S. basketball squad weaknesses generally get the fish-eye treatment around the circuit, there has been no disposition to take the Klansmen as 1949-50 favorites for the DUSO pennant. Kins' opponents realize the Maroon wizard has had to start virtually from scratch. Still they're "scared to death."

Ronnie Scheffel's mates on the tentative varsity five will be George Holstein, a speed demon at one of the forwards; Moll Leonard at center and Jim Riehl and Bud Scheffel, guards. First line reserves are Henry Levy, a guard, and Dick Schults, forward. Six of "Big Seven" saw limited varsity action last season when the regulars had salted away games.

Not in the least superstitious, Couch Kins insists on carrying 13 players on the "varsity squad."

A Good Newcomer

Best of the newcomers is Bob Beaumont, a senior transfer from Tonneck, N. J., High School. Beaumont plays guard and is likely to see considerable service. Coach Kins thinks he will help the club. Beaumont had two years experience at Tonneck and has been showing good form in practice sessions.

Mike Provenzano, diminutive sharpshooter of last year's Jayvees, will make a strong bid for varsity recognition. Among other things, Mike is credited with the longest set shot in the history of the municipal auditorium.

Other Jayvees moving up are

George Carpuze, a good scorer; Robert Hampton, a clutch shooter of some repute; Big Joe Berryant and "Chick" Caruso.

The regular 18-game schedule lists St. Patrick's Academy of Newburgh as a replacement for Saugerties High.

All Kingston home games are scheduled at 8:30 p. m. with the Jayvee contest at 7 o'clock.

Grid Lions After Hart and Walker

New York, Dec. 8 (AP)—Two of the year's outstanding college football stars, Leon Hart of Notre Dame and Doak Walker of Southern Methodist, may wind up as professional teammates next year at Detroit—but the Lions will have to say it with dollars.

Hart, the most widely acclaimed lineman to come out of college ranks since Larry Kelley of Yale 13 years ago, indicated yesterday he might be hard to persuade, unless the bid is a fat one.

"I'm waiting for the right offer," the 21-year-old All-America end from Turtle Creek, Pa., said. "I won't play unless I get what I want."

The six-foot-four, 260-pound flankman, who is fast enough to play fullback, was asked what sort of a figure would interest him.

"You might say $25,000 a year as a starter," he replied. Then he winked, leaving you to decide whether he was serious.

By McMillin coach of the National Football League Lions, was in town, too, last night to speak at the Heisman Memorial Award dinner honoring Hart as the outstanding football player of the year.

McMillin has been talking with Walker, last year's Heisman win-

Katrine Club Plans Pheasant Shoot Sunday

as well as Hart, but acknowledges he has made little progress with either athlete.

"I hope to have them both in our backfield next year," the silver-haired coach drawled. "I'd play Hart at fullback and Walker would make a fine addition to our team."

Hart was awarded the Heisman trophy in elaborate ceremonies at the downtown athletic club. This is just one of the honors heaped on him this year. He later will get awards from the Maxwell Club in Philadelphia and the Touchdown Club in Washington.

Expect Retention Of Baseball Bonus

Baltimore, Dec. 8 (AP)—As the minor leagues went into their biggest session of the convention today it appeared virtually certain that the bonus rule would be retained—at least for another year.

While the repeal of the controversial rule, sponsored by the Indianapolis club of the American Association, is supported by the higher minor leagues, a majority of the smaller ones are against it.

It was learned.

A three-quarter vote is necessary for repeal, and it looks very much like the Indianapolis club and its followers will fall short of their mark. That means it would take the votes of only 15 of the 58 leagues to defeat the proposal.

Although the clubs were under strict orders from the executive council not to divulge their stand before the official vote today, it has leaked out that the big three of the minors—the Pacific Coast League, International League and American Association—have voted in favor of repeal. So have the Eastern Interstate, Colonial and North Atlantic Leagues.

The bonus rule makes a free agent who is paid more than $6,000 by the majors, Triple A or Double A, $4,500 by any other club a "bonus player" forever. That means that in most cases he can not be farmed out once he is advanced to the parent club after his first year and is subject to unrestricted draft. Once waivers are asked on such a player, he must be given to the claiming club. The claiming club, however, has the privilege of sending him down once to the minors.

Commies May Halt Tennis Tournaments

London, Dec. 8 (AP)—Communist tactics in eastern Europe may halt world-wide international tennis, the president of the British Lawn Tennis Association declared today.

Viscount Templewood, in a speech prepared for the association's annual meeting, said western countries can't remain indifferent to the Communist players' efforts to spread propaganda while playing in tournaments.

Lord Templewood is a former British foreign secretary and air minister. "Sport in a totalitarian country is regarded solely and only as a government activity for the furtherance of government policy," he said.

"The players who represent a totalitarian country in a sporting event are regarded as agents of their government and are expected to carry out in every respect their government's instructions. "I call the attention of the International Federation of Lawn Tennis to this state of affairs and I ask the representatives of this and other non-totalitarian associations whether it is possible to maintain athletic cooperation with countries whose conception of games is so utterly opposed to our own."

It was during the Swiss tournament that the Czech government ordered its two star players, Jaroslav Drobny and Vladimir Cernik, to withdraw. They refused and became political exiles.

He also referred to the conduct of Josef Asboth, Hungary's best known player, at a recent tournament at Bucharest.

"He spent most of his time, no doubt under government orders, in publicly abusing American and British sport and in declaring himself to be a passionate Communist missionary," Lord Templewood said.

Local Club Continues Talks With Majors

Negotiations to secure a working agreement with a major league club are still in progress at the minor league convention in Baltimore, Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk informed Addison Jones by telephone late last night.

The mayor, who personally led Kingston's delegation to the annual confab and helped to effect the purchase of the Colonial franchise by the Booster Club, told Jones last night that talks are still continuing.

Sale of the Kingston Colonials by Ted Laviano to a group of 20 city businessmen was announced earlier this week by President John A. Scanz after a meeting in Baltimore.

Although terms of the transfer of the local franchise from Laviano to the Booster Club were not announced, it was believed that the Boosters would assume all local obligations incurred by Laviano in the operation of the Class B club during the 1949 season.

Final papers effecting the transfer of the franchise to the Booster Club were expected to be signed in Baltimore today.

In his long distance telephone conversation with Jones last night, Mayor Newkirk said "feelings" are still out with other major league clubs. The mayor is expected to leave Baltimore about noon today for his homeward trek to Kingston.

Southworth Plans No Big Wigwam House Cleaning

By JOE REICHLER
Baltimore, Dec. 8 (AP)—If Billy Southworth is troubled by reports of discontent among his players, the balding Boston Braves' manager is giving no sign of it.

Making his first appearance at the minor league convention yesterday, Southworth cleared some of the tension by declaring in a press conference:

"I didn't come here to tear the club apart. If any of you fellows think I feel that I'm forced to dispose of some members of the team, you're positively wrong. I'll never lower the dollar value on any of my players."

"There are no differences between me and my players as far as I'm concerned. Sure I'd like to make some deals, but only if I think they will strengthen the Braves."

Reports that Southworth had to make changes in his personnel stemmed from the sad situation in Boston all last season. Rumors of a player revolt during spring training followed by Billy's departure from the club in mid-season and the notorious half-share voting incident, all led to the belief that the manager was sure to clean house for 1950.

Sain, Dark to Stay
To emphasize the point that the anticipated house-cleaning won't come off, Southworth revealed that pitcher Johnny Sain and shortstop Alvin Dark two of the players supposed to be on the trading block were on his "don't trade" list.

Southworth, however, wouldn't go that far on Eddie Stanky, rumored to have been one of the leading forces in the clubhouse vote of "non-confidence" which resulted in Southworth being awarded only half a share of the team's fourth place money—an action later reversed by Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

In reply to a reporter's question whether Stanky was a marked man, Billy quickly replied: "No, sir! Nothing of the sort. There is as much chance of Stanky being back as any other player—and I've read the newspapers."

However, Southworth indicated that Stanky would be traded if a suitable offer were made. He appeared to take special pains in pointing out that the Braves had a young second baseman, named Roy Hartsfield coming up from Milwaukee who hit 317 and "was the No. 1 rookie in the American Association."

New York—(St. Nicholas Arena)—Tommy Yarcos, 169, Monaca, Pa., outpainted Jimmy Beau, 162½, Norwalk, Conn., 8.

Phoenix, Ariz.—Chino Alonzo, 133, Agua Prieta, Mexico, and Rocky Lucero, 130, San Francisco, drew, 10.

Schedule Adopted

Meanwhile in Baltimore, the Associated Press reported this morning that the Colonial League yesterday adopted a 130-game schedule, opening May 2 and closing Labor Day. The schedule, the A.P. said, is subject to revision if the six-team league expands to eight clubs at a later date.

According to the 1950 schedule, Kingston will open the season at Poughkeepsie. Other opening day pairings are Stamford at Bridgeport and Bristol at Waterbury.

Indications that the league might expand to eight clubs were signified by Sam Aceto, president of the Portland Me. club of the disbanded New England League. This was hinted by President Scanz of the Colonial League who said that Aceto was anxious to secure a franchise in the Colonial setup.

Another development in Baltimore was the election of Lester Osterman as vice-president of the Colonial League. Osterman is president of the Bristol Owls.

Bowling

Rose Schatzel was up to her old tricks in the Colonial Women's circuit at the Bowlatorium Wednesday night when she led the leggers with a gaudy 610 triple ball round solid games of 210-202-188.

Runner-up honors went to Jo Smith, the league's secretary, who bashed a neat 555. Jo, incidentally, turned in a very neat record of last night's matches. The No. 2 staff member opened fast with 212 and came back with 186 and 158 for her series.

Others in the "500" circle were Dot Rawding with 187-327; Mary Wynn, 195-527 and Margie Jones, 192-503.

Other creditable efforts included Marie Koenig 498; Tess Moss 479-490; Doris Wolf 485; Frances Hogan 482; and Helen Trowbridge 451.

The Bowlo-Fites lead this division with a five-game margin over Safford and Scudder.

Ly-Love took the lead in the Silver division with a two pin lead over Dot Murphy on the strength of her 478 series. Dot Murphy unloaded a 470 series while Bertha Schaller shot 470.

The number one club in the Silver loop is Perry Thal holding a seven-game lead over the second place Broadway Flowers.

Theresa Clark's new single record of 205 and a 466 triple topped the Purple Division last night. D. Bell rolled 435 and A. Mauro had 434.

Two teams are tied for top honors in this circuit—Mac-Avery leggers and Sue's Studio—both with records of 27 wins and 15 losses. American Legion 1 is next with 24 and 18.

Ellie Blakely reeled off scores of 134, 191 and 137 for top honors in the Chalet Women's circuit. Edleen Walsh batted out 411; June McGuire 404 and Helen McDougall 400.

Steady pinning of 172-190-208 gave Art Eymann the best triple in the Chalet Federation League. Ferguson of Port Ewen tossed 558 and R. Cutler had 519.

Rip Van Winkle leggers trailed Bob "Red" Gorsline, league secretary, who knocked off scores of 181-202-192 for best-of-the-night 575. George Silverstein whacked 214-552; G. Williams 528; B. Johnson 522; E. Koskie 516; Peter "Tiano" 518; R. Zamolli 513; Bob Hewson 511; F. Robinson 505 and J. Polk 501.

Joe Heidcamp sandwiched in 227 between counts of 196 and 159 for a 582 triple to lead the Rookie League session at the Bowlatorium this week.

Others in the top bracket included Frank Grimaldi who split the pot—batted 181 games and then winding up with 214. H. Schussler of the Trinity Lutheran 1 squad walked off with top honors in the American League at the Bowlatorium last night with a neat 575 triple. In the number-two bracket C. Hyde who fired 198-168-193 for 577. Also of note were H. Fine with 507; Herm Osmer 501; Don Weeks 497; and Chet Weeks 493.

In the 7 o'clock American Federation shift at the Y last night Herb Slight fashioned 511 for the lone triple in that coveted bracket. Slight had games of 181-157-173. Arthur Carr rolled 477-484 and Austin Hitchcock shot 483.

Evelyn Gross and Tess Moss emerged as leaders at the end of the third round of competition in the local W.B.C. Sweepstakes qualifying play. Rose Schatzel, two-time winner, did not compete this season.

Mrs. Gross knocked down 2558 pins in 15 games in the Major division for a 24-pin margin over Reta Frederick, K.W.B.A. secretary. Margie Jansen was third with 2513. Dot Rawding posted 2496 and Bea Barley rounded out the first five with 2465.

Mrs. Moss' pinfall was 2446 in the Minor division. Runnerup was Mae Martalto with 2388. Carrie Mohr posted 2274. Helen Trowbridge 2242 and Ardis Miller 2214.

The results: Major Division—Evelyn Gross 2558; Reta Frederick 2534; Margie Jansen 2513; Dot Rawding 2496; Bea Barley 2465; Phyl Gehring 2293.

Minor Division—Tess Moss 2446; Mae Martalto 2388; Caroline Mohr 2274; Helen Trowbridge 2242; Ardis Miller 2214; Matilda Bruck 2183; Florence Kelder 2150; Marguerite Logan 2134; Betty Helmbold 2138; V. Slover 2018.

The local finals will be rolled at a later date.

Joe Kwasney, golf and television expert, pounced on the lone "500" in the Rosendale Chalet Leaders League. He peppered the maples for 185-181-174-520. C. Reilly was runnerup with 485.

Other good scores were C. Reilly's 485; J. Averb 476; F. Foertsch 475 and H. Houska 478.

61st A.A.U. Parley Opens on West Coast San Francisco, Dec 8 (AP)—The 61st annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union opened today with a red-hot debate on whether to bar foreign athletes from A.A.U. competition.

The 250 delegates also will consider opening amateur events to professionals of other sports.

The four-day meeting will be presided over by James A. Rhodes, mayor of Columbus, O., and president of the A.A.U.

The Iowa and Middle Atlantic Association have advocated barring foreigners from A.A.U. competition, Rhodes is against the ban.

"Enactment of a rule to prohibit foreign athletes to compete in our championships would be an invitation to retaliatory measures on the part of other countries," he explained.

The whole issue came to a head in Los Angeles this summer. Japanese swimmers walked off with the lion's share of the titles and records in National A.A.U. Swimming Championships.

New Orleans—Bernard Docu-gan, 145, New Orleans, stopped "Jumpy Larkin, 143, Garfield, N. J. 5.

Ed LaGuardia with 164-151-218-533; J. Doyle 524; and J. Struble 516. Frank Flor missed the 500 bracket with a 491 effort.

Rose Schatzel turned in the lone "500" series to spearhead the Friendship League matches this week with her 508 score. Mrs. Schatzel posted 188-208-139 to lead the parade.

Elsewhere in the circuit, Bev. Maricle fired 197-496; Edna Peterson 485; Bea Barley 180-460; M. Miller 467; Evelyn Dolson 181-494; Rita LaRocca 462.

N. Glennon took over the leadership of the Pioneer Women's League at the Bowlatorium last night with a 433 triple effort. V. Flanagan posted the only 400 with her 422 series.

Top effort in the Women's Booster wheel at the "Palace" was Pat Cowdry's who fashioned a 384 triple on scores of 144-125-115. Four pins off the pace was Margaret Bertram who wound up with 380. Dolores Jankowski shot 370.

Splashing the pot-bellied maples for two straight 181 games and then winding up with 214, H. Schussler of the Trinity Lutheran 1 squad walked off with top honors in the American League at the Bowlatorium last night with a neat 575 triple. In the number-two bracket C. 61st A.A.U. Parley Opens on West Coast San Francisco, Dec 8 (AP)—The 61st annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union opened today with a red-hot debate on whether to bar foreign athletes from A.A.U. competition.

The 250 delegates also will consider opening amateur events to professionals of other sports.

The four-day meeting will be presided over by James A. Rhodes, mayor of Columbus, O., and president of the A.A.U.

The Iowa and Middle Atlantic Association have advocated barring foreigners from A.A.U. competition, Rhodes is against the ban.

"Enactment of a rule to prohibit foreign athletes to compete in our championships would be an invitation to retaliatory measures on the part of other countries," he explained.

The whole issue came to a head in Los Angeles this summer. Japanese swimmers walked off with the lion's share of the titles and records in National A.A.U. Swimming Championships.

New Orleans—Bernard Docu-gan, 145, New Orleans, stopped "Jumpy Larkin, 143, Garfield, N. J. 5.

Ed LaGuardia with 164-151-218-533; J. Doyle 524; and J. Struble 516. Frank Flor missed the 500 bracket with a 491 effort.

Rose Schatzel turned in the lone "500" series to spearhead the Friendship League matches this week with her 508 score. Mrs. Schatzel posted 188-208-139 to lead the parade.

Elsewhere in the circuit, Bev. Maricle fired 197-496; Edna Peterson 485; Bea Barley 180-460; M. Miller 467; Evelyn Dolson 181-494; Rita LaRocca 462.

N. Glennon took over the leadership of the Pioneer Women's League at the Bowlatorium last night with a 433 triple effort. V. Flanagan posted the only 400 with her 422 series.

Top effort in the Women's Booster wheel at the "Palace" was Pat Cowdry's who fashioned a 384 triple on scores of 144-125-115. Four pins off the pace was Margaret Bertram who wound up with 380. Dolores Jankowski shot 370.

Splashing the pot-bellied maples for two straight 181 games and then winding up with 214, H. Schussler of the Trinity Lutheran 1 squad walked off with top honors in the American League at the Bowlatorium last night with a neat 575 triple. In the number-two bracket C. Hyde who fired 198-168-193 for 577. Also of note were H. Fine with 507; Herm Osmer 501; Don Weeks 497; and Chet Weeks 493.

In the 7 o'clock American Federation shift at the Y last night Herb Slight fashioned 511 for the lone triple in that coveted bracket. Slight had games of 181-157-173. Arthur Carr rolled 477-484 and Austin Hitchcock shot 483.

Evelyn Gross and Tess Moss emerged as leaders at the end of the third round of competition in the local W.B.C. Sweepstakes qualifying play. Rose Schatzel, two-time winner, did not compete this season.

Mrs. Gross knocked down 2558 pins in 15 games in the Major division for a 24-pin margin over Reta Frederick, K.W.B.A. secretary. Margie Jansen was third with 2513. Dot Rawding posted 2496 and Bea Barley rounded out the first five with 2465.

Mrs. Moss' pinfall was 2446 in the Minor division. Runnerup was Mae Martalto with 2388. Carrie Mohr posted 2274. Helen Trowbridge 2242 and Ardis Miller 2214.

The results: Major Division—Evelyn Gross 2558; Reta Frederick 2534; Margie Jansen 2513; Dot Rawding 2496; Bea Barley 2465; Phyl Gehring 2293.

Minor Division—Tess Moss 2446; Mae Martalto 2388; Caroline Mohr 2274; Helen Trowbridge 2242; Ardis Miller 2214; Matilda Bruck 2183; Florence Kelder 2150; Marguerite Logan 2134; Betty Helmbold 2138; V. Slover 2018.

The local finals will be rolled at a later date.

Joe Kwasney, golf and television expert, pounced on the lone "500" in the Rosendale Chalet Leaders League. He peppered the maples for 185-181-174-520. C. Reilly was runnerup with 485.

Other good scores were C. Reilly's 485; J. Averb 476; F. Foertsch 475 and H. Houska 478.

Rip Van Winkle League Ryan's Serv. Sta. 812 828 786 2438; McSpill Motors 727 708 747 2179.

Judge Rules Baby Is Now Legitimized

Los Angeles, Dec. 8 (AP)—A baby born out of wedlock has been legitimized because his father has declared his paternity, so rules the court. And wedding bells may ring a happy ending to the unique paternity case.

"Since the father brought the matter to court it is his duty to marry the defendant," Superior Judge Thomas J. Cunningham said yesterday to Leroy Hodge, 21-year-old G.I. student.

Hodge had asked the court to declare him the father of the baby born to Loretta Miller, 17, and for a restraining order to prevent her from offering the infant for adoption.

The girl's attorneys said she is willing to marry. But Hodge's counsel, Robert J. Sullivan, said that "if tempers are allowed to simmer down, perhaps a little later these young people will marry."

Sullivan added his client will have to leave school and get a job to pay $50 monthly for the baby's support, $25 a month counsel fees until $225 is paid, and a $175 maternity hospital bill.

GRANGE NEWS

Got Speed Signs
Stone Ridge, Dec. 8—At its December meeting attended by 42 members, Stone Ridge Grange rejoiced over its success with the New York State Traffic Control Committee which has promised to grant the request for two speed limit signs at each end of the village, notifying motorists to proceed at 35 miles an hour.

Although a previous request for signs was unproductive, according to the Grange, continued correspondence brought results. Several other local organizations joined the Grange in asking for the signs. The signs have been a long-felt need in our community," a Grange representative said.

The program for the meeting was in charge of Mrs. G. Timmer, lecturer. It consisted of a skit by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rooka, a game played by four men and four women; movies, "American Railroads" and "Game Conservation." Refreshments were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kukiel and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arra.

Date of the Christmas party is December 19. It is for Grange families and Juvenile Grangers. Each one attending is requested to bring a small gift and child's toy.

Joe. E. O'Connor, Inc.
Rosendale, New York
Gentlemen:

Last winter, the ice blocked up my gutters and leader pipes so that the water dripping down the roof became dammed up. It seeped under the shingles and through the ceiling and walls below. How can I prevent this? I understand you have a remedy.

Please call and give an estimate, without obligation.

Very truly yours,
JOHN DOE

'Dividing Line' Needed
Houston, Tex., Dec. 8 (AP)—Finding a dividing line between government control and citizen responsibility is America's largest problem. General Dwight D. Eisenhower warned last night that a crowd of 15,000 that Americans need to take stock because "we think each of us would admit that we're not doing it right."
